Soldiers A Play:

A Soldier's Play Charles Fuller, 1981 In a Louisiana army camp in 1944 Capt Taylor the white C O has a problem He commands a Black company whose sergeant has been murdered He is worried the murderer may be a white officer or the local Klan A Black captain Richard Davenport is assigned to investigate Taylor tries to discourage him because he feels the assignment of a Black investigator means the case is to be swept under the rug Capt Davenport perseveres and as he probes deeper he finds the Black soldiers are as corrupted with hatred as the whites Each one had a motive for the killing Davenport solves the case and the truth is even more shocking than the murder itself A Soldier's Play Charles Fuller, 1982-09 A black sergeant cries out in the night They still hate you then is shot twice and falls dead Set in 1944 at Fort Neal a segregated army camp in Louisiana Charles Fuller's forceful drama which won the Pulitzer Prize in 1982 and has been regularly seen in both its original stage and its later screen version tracks the investigation of this murder The Soldier's Reward Jennifer Ngaire Heuer, 2024-12-03 A sweeping history of intimacy and family life in France during the age of revolution The French Revolution and Napoleonic Wars devastated Europe for nearly a quarter of a century The Soldier's Reward recovers the stories of soldiers and their relationships to family and domestic life during this period revealing how prolonged warfare transformed family and gender dynamics and gave rise to new kinds of citizenship In this groundbreaking work combining social cultural gender and military history Jennifer Ngaire Heuer vividly describes how men fought for years with only fleeting moments of peace Combatants were promised promotion financial gain and patriotic glory They were also rewarded for their service by being allowed to return home to waiting families and love interests and with marriages that were arranged and financially supported by the state Heuer explores competing ideas of masculinity in France as well as the experiences of the men and women who participated in such marriages She argues that we cannot fully understand the changing nature of war and peace in this period without considering the important roles played by family gender and romantic entanglements Casting new light on a turbulent era of mass mobilization and seemingly endless conflict The Soldier's Reward shows how from the Revolution through the Restoration war intimacy and citizenship intersected in France in new and unexpected ways The Capra Touch Matthew C. Gunter, 2011-12-01 During World War II Academy Award winning director Frank Capra 1897 1991 made propaganda films for the U S Government such as Prelude to War The Nazis Strike The Battle of Britain War Comes to America and The Negro Soldier These entries in the Why We Fight documentary series have been largely neglected by Capra scholars This work analyzes the cinematic and thematic techniques Capra employed in these films linking them to the techniques and ideology of the director's popular mainstream narrative films including It Happened One Night Mr Deeds Goes to Town and Mr Smith Goes to Washington Also analyzed are the manners in which Frank Capra's war service affected his later films notably his 1946 masterpiece It's a Wonderful Life and how Capra's belief in individual liberty shaped both his films and his career under the oppressive Hollywood studio system Ebony, 1983-03
