

A cinematic photograph showing a man in a hospital gown on the left, looking intently at a man on the right who is holding a thick stack of US dollar bills. A third man is visible in the background, also looking towards the transaction. The scene is dimly lit, suggesting an indoor setting like a hospital or a private care facility.

The Addiction Recovery Handbook Richard W. Clark, 2020-09-28 What Richard Clark presents in The Addiction Recovery Handbook Understanding Addiction and Culture is long overdue Since 1939 Bill Wilson's important and influential books Alcoholics Anonymous and AA's Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions have helped millions of people struggling with addiction to recover In more than 80 years since then a lot has changed the definition of addiction its demographics social attitudes to addiction politics religious influence treatment modalities and the epidemiology of the illness These have taken tolls on our modern network of relationships and treatment that culture and community now depend upon The Addiction Recovery Handbook examines the changing historical views of addiction outlines how this culture developed its contemporary perceptions and values and how society contributes to this growing problem Richard Clark proposes AA's traditional religious model of God's help and forgiveness can no longer address the needs of a diverse and largely irreligious society where atheism is becoming mainstream His updated analysis of the traditional AA approach proposes that self understanding and awareness through knowledge and education psychology and compassion be the significant components of any recovery framework This will guide both caregivers and addicts to develop expertise regarding more successful treatment and recovery protocols This would be in a supportive environment of self knowledge and mutual respect whether theist or atheist All concerned will acquire the ability to live a spiritual life which is clearly defined The Addiction Recovery Handbook is an interesting and readable book and is intended for everyone addicts medical professionals counsellors therapists clients sponsors social workers family members partners friends employers every stakeholder in a healthy non judgmental society that cares about the wellbeing of all its members
