The period of the Enlightenment was marked by innovation in political cultural religious and educational ideas with the aim of improving the experience of human beings in society Key to intellectual debates and day to day life were ideas about the law Many looked to Britain and to the British as exemplars of a state governed by moderate laws under a moderate constitution Britain s laws and constitution were portrayed and satirized in almost every artistic medium A Cultural History of Law in the Age of Enlightenment presents essays spanning the long 18th century 1680 to 1820 which explore the place of law in a range of creative and artistic media all of which flourished in a commercial society with law at its center and enlightenment as its aim Drawing upon a wealth of visual and textual sources A Cultural History of Law in the Age of Enlightenment presents essays that examine key cultural case studies of the period on the themes of justice constitution codes agreements arguments property and possession wrongs and the legal profession

The winter's tale William Shakespeare, 1907 The Short Story Ethan Allen Cross, 1928 The Captive's Position Teresa A. Toulouse, 2013-04-23

Why do narratives of Indian captivity emerge in New England between 1682 and 1707 and why are these texts so centrally concerned with women s experience supported and even written by a powerful group of Puritan ministers In The Captive s Position Teresa Toulouse argues for a new interpretation of the captivity narrative one that takes into account the profound shifts in political and social authority and legitimacy that occurred in New England at the end of the seventeenth century While North American narratives of Indian captivity had been written before this period by French priests and other European adventurers those stories had focused largely on Catholic conversions and martyrdoms or male strategies for survival among the Indians In contrast the New England texts represented a colonial Protestant woman who was separated brutally from her family but who demonstrated qualities of religious acceptance humility and obedience until she was eventually returned to her own community Toulouse explores how the female captive s position came to resonate so powerfully for traditional male elites in the second and third generation of the Massachusetts colony Threatened by ongoing wars with Indians and French as well as by a range of royal English interventions in New England political and cultural life figures such as Increase Mather Cotton Mather and John Williams perceived themselves to be equally challenged by religious and social conflicts within New England By responding to and employing popular representations of female captivity they were enabled to express their ambivalence toward the world of their fathers and toward imperial expansion and thereby to negotiate their own complicated sense of personal and cultural identity Examining the captivity narratives of Mary Rowlandson Hannah Dustan Hannah Swarton and John Williams who comes to stand in for the female captive Toulouse asserts the need to read these gendered texts as cultural products that variably engage shape and confound colonial attitudes toward both Europe and the local scene

Frymire,2022-06-02 Preaching from Inside the Story is a book that seeks to carve out an understanding of narrative preaching in an age where there is little agreement about its nature and practice Capitalizing on the works of Craddock and Lowry it seeks to find an expanded palette upon which the preacher may engage the larger canvas of narrative preaching This book will engage the mind by introducing neuroscientific understandings of creativity build upon the foundations of the philosophy of stories by engaging Aristotle's foundational understanding of narrative and renew the Lowry Loop by expanding this seminal work and how it should be understood in our current culture Preaching from Inside the Story breaks new ground by encouraging preachers to move inside stories and tell them from the inside out providing a positive effect thereby affording non narrative preachers to connect with storytelling principles Ultimately it is filled with examples of how to do narrative in a very practical way However in showing these practical examples the reader is involved in a deep analysis of those narrative sermons and how they fit into an overall narrative understanding of preaching In the final analysis it invites the reader to take a fresh journey into narrative preaching
