Sarah Grand (pseud.)

The Promised Twin:

The Promised Land Jacques F. Felix, 2025-06-25 In the massive expanse of the Atlantic Ocean twin brothers Joseph and Paul sail towards America and they hope a life without poverty and fear Having set sail from their homeland Haiti with each passing hour the brothers fear they will never reach their destination that they will never fulfill their mother's dream The Promised Land is a fable about the courage of humanity in the face of adversity and the power of love to lead us through the dark times and into the light and the sequel to The Promised Land A Tale of a Pair of Twins About the Author Jacques F Felix is a law student at Howard University School of Law

The Promised Twin Kjirstin Youngberg, 1998-08-01 About the life and death of a youngest son A personal glimpse into the author's family life and her discovery that all life is purposeful and a part of a cycle which never ends

The Twin Film Phenomenon Lauren Rosewarne, 2025-11-18 This book examines the recurring phenomenon in film and television where two strikingly similar productions are released in close succession Examples include Armageddon 1998 and Deep Impact 1998 A Bug's Life 1998 and Antz 1998 and more recently the 2019 Fyre Festival documentaries and the 2024 Prince Andrew docudramas Drawing from hundreds of cases this book explores why these twin productions emerge the industrial and creative forces that drive them and how they reflect broader trends in media history Situating this pattern within the fields of remake adaptation and media multiplicities studies this book provides a comprehensive analysis of this largely understudied yet pervasive phenomenon Each chapter examines different motivations behind the creation of twin films and TV shows from economic imperatives and competitive market dynamics to shared cultural anxieties and trends in audience demand This book presents a meticulous catalogue of examples demonstrating how genres and themes gain traction simultaneously across different studios and networks In addition to offering historical insights this book engages with contemporary debates on media repetition nostalgia and Hollywood's fixation on reproducing familiar narratives Written by an author with extensive expertise in media studies this book combines exhaustive research with a clear accessible style making it an essential resource for understanding the mechanisms behind content duplication in the entertainment industry Academically this book contributes to scholarship in film television and media studies by applying an interdisciplinary approach that integrates political science feminist theory and cultural analysis It draws on close readings of films industry reports and a dataset of critical reviews to provide fresh perspectives on media production and consumption As a valuable resource for students and scholars alike it enriches discussions on screen media industrial production and the cultural forces shaping contemporary entertainment
