Truth Is Fiction:

The Character of Truth Naomi Jacobs, 1990 Can the novel survive in an age when tales of historical figures and contemporary personalities dominate the reading lists of the book buying public Naomi Jacobs addresses this question in a study of writers such as William Styron E L Doctorow and Robert Coover who challenge the dominance of nonfiction by populating their fictions with real people living and dead Jacobs explores the genesis varieties and implications of this trend in a prose as lively as that of the writers she critiques Using as a case study Robert Coover s portrait of Richard Nixon in The Public Burning Jacobs addresses the important legal and ethical questions raised by this trend and applies contemporary libel law to the fictionalization of living people such as Richard Nixon She closes her study by speculating on the future of this device and of the novel

Truth.Fiction.Lies Patrick X Walsh, 2019-09-11 How could he be a good boy and a bad boy at the same time The TRUTH is what is FICTION is not reality but it can help us to see the TRUTH through stories e g The Boy Who Cried Wolf LIES deceive for evil purposes and for good purposes But what happens when what we think is the TRUTH turns out to be a LIE In his ninth decade the author who has spent his life creating FICTION to examine TRUTH decided to write the story of his life truthfully But in the process of examining his life his prayers works joys and sufferings he discovers it becomes more and more difficult to distinguish the TRUTH from the LIES And the chief insights into the reality of a life he thought noble his FICTION often in the form of dreams reveals his true nature as a failure in his professed faith until a good woman shows him the way out of his dark forest
