True Summit:

True Summit David Roberts,2013-06-11 In a startling look at the classic Annapurna the most famous book about mountaineering David Roberts discloses what really happened on the legendary expedition to the Himalayan peak In June 1950 a team of mountaineers was the first to conquer an 8 000 meter peak Maurice Herzog the leader of the expedition became a national hero in France and Annapurna his account of the historic ascent has long been regarded as the ultimate tale of courage and cooperation under the harshest of conditions In True Summit David Roberts presents a fascinating revision of this classic tale Using newly available documents and information gleaned from a rare interview with Herzog the only climber on the team still living Roberts shows that the expedition was torn by dissent As he re creates the actual events Roberts lays bare Herzog s self serving determination and bestows long delayed credit to the most accomplished and unsung heroes These new revelations will inspire young adventurers and change forever the way we think about this victory in the mountains and the climbers who achieved it

Spirit of Adventure Wayne Enright,2019-11-05 When the Spirit of Adventure Calls to our Heart we must go This quote written in memory of Mark Auricht who died on Mt Everest in 2001 reminds us of our enduring connection with nature and the magnetic attraction of adventure It not only enlivens our soul but also has the power to draw from within us a strength courage resilience and passion that for some lies dormant until awakened Beyond the story of triumph and tragedy in the Himalayan landscape this book is also about the journey that takes place within us when we explore the limits of our self imposed boundaries to find the hidden treasures of our heart As the world enters a time of unprecedented change we must evolve new ways of thinking living learning and leading that will help us to navigate the challenging terrain of this new frontier May this heart felt tribute to the enduring spirit of Mark Auricht serve as an inspiration and a compass for future leaders adventurous souls and explorers of human potential
