Creating the Intimate Connection Daniel Beaver, 2010 Early in his career, Dan Beaver discovered that people were never taught how to develop an intimate relationship. We are taught how to read, how to write, drive, play sports, and use a computer. But nowhere in our society are we taught how to develop or maintain an intimate relationship. Most of us learned from TV shows. Some generations were taught by Ozzie and Harriet, Nelson or Ward and June Cleaver. Other generations learned from their favorite soap operas or maybe The Waltons, Cliff and Clair Huxtable, Roseanne, Friends, or 7th Heaven. We now have Desperate Housewives, The O.C., and a multitude of reality shows. Almost everyone learns something about intimacy from their parents, but few had the luxury of learning good skills. Most of us have not. In working with thousands of couples over the past 34 years, Dan heard a common theme from almost everyone upon committing to a lifelong relationship: marriage, etc. They were totally unprepared for knowing how to develop and maintain an intimate relationship that lasts a lifetime. Because of his desire to help people, Dan developed a process that enables everyone to create the relationship of their dreams. He delivers information that addresses a major need and fulfills our desire for details on how to have greater fulfillment in an intimate relationship. His passion is to help people; his style is powerful, straightforward, warm, and engaging. Cover page 4 The Intimate Connection James B.

Nelson, 1988-01-01 In recent decades, men have begun to question seriously their traditionally held roles and values. The women's movement, popular books, and male images on television and in films have all contributed to men's uncertainty about themselves. There is a major shift taking place in the perception of sexuality. James Nelson asserts that men and women seek something the sexual revolution did not provide: an understanding of the true meaning of love. This, he claims, is the unfinished business of that revolution.

The Intimate Connection Roger Goffeney, 2010-11-14 In many areas of the world, intimacy is a constant way of life. They often feel a sense of intimacy even while washing their dishes or feeding their pets. Teachers also feel a sense of intimacy with their students; for the students are teaching the teacher while listening to the words. And especially is it true when they are intimate with their partner in this life experience. Yet this intimacy is not what is promoted by common advertising or any of the media. It is much more. It is a fuller sense of belonging that has no barriers created by
