Think Children:

Teaching Children to Think Robert Fisher, 2005 This book is for anyone interested in teaching children how to think to reason and solve problems Robert Fisher reviews the main concepts methods and research in the teaching of thinking skills developed in recent years The second edition provides practical ideas to develop the thinking and learning in children of all ages and abilities

Teaching Kids to Think Darlene Sweetland, Ron Stolberg, 2015-03-03 Why Do Kids These Days Expect Everything to be Given to Them Today's kids don't know how to read a map They can Google the answer to any question at lightning speed If a teen forgets his homework a quick call to mom or dad has it hand delivered in minutes Fueled by the rapid pace of technology the Instant Gratification Generation not only expects immediate solutions to problems they're more dependent than ever on adults Today's kids are being denied opportunities to make mistakes and more importantly to learn from them They are being taught not to think In Teaching Kids to Think Dr Darlene Sweetland and Dr Ron Stolberg offer insight into the social emotional and neurological challenges unique to this generation They identify the five parent traps that cause adults to unknowingly increase their children's need for instant gratification and offer practical tips and easy to implement solutions to address topics relevant to children of all ages A must read for parents and educators Teaching Kids to Think will help you understand where this sense of entitlement comes from and how to turn it around in order to raise children who are confident independent and thoughtful

The Think Book E. E. Johnson, 2007-10 How can we ever help the children in the third world How can we really help the children in America How can we help the children in our neighborhood In The Think Book What Are We Doing To Our Children author E E Johnson brings the global struggle of raising and nurturing our children a kick to our future to a local level This first in Johnson's series of think books is designed to make you stop and ponder how the small habits you form really can change the world for the better

Children Bill Great Britain: Parliament: Joint Committee on Human Rights, 2004 The Committee's report examines the Children Bill as introduced into the Commons in July 2004 HCB 144 ISBN 0215704479 following Lords amendments In particular the report focuses on the parts of the Bill relating to the creation of the post of Children's Commissioner for England strengthening the legal framework of co-operation between agencies delivering children's services as well as clause 49 of the Bill on the corporal punishment of children and the restriction of the defence of reasonable chastisement in light of the UK's obligations under the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child and the European Convention on Human Rights Conclusions reached include i support for the creation of an independent rights based office of Children's Commissioner and ii that the continuing availability of the defence of reasonable chastisement is incompatible with the UK's obligations under the UN Convention and other international agreements
