Kingsolver,2002-04-02 In her new essay collection the beloved author of High Tide in Tucson brings to us out of one of history s darker moments an extended love song to the world we still have From its opening parable gleaned from recent news about a lost child saved in an astonishing way the book moves on to consider a world of surprising and hopeful prospects ranging from an inventive conservation scheme in a remote jungle to the backyard flock of chickens tended by the author s small daughter Whether she is contemplating the Grand Canyon her vegetable garden motherhood adolescence genetic engineering TV watching the history of civil rights or the future of a nation founded on the best of all human impulses these essays are grounded in the author s belief that our largest problems have grown from the earth s remotest corners as well as our own backyards and that answers may lie in those places too In the voice Kingsolver s readers have come to rely
