Athearn HO scale model railroad equipment has been the choice of hobbyists for 50 years. Now, the company's complete production history has been assembled into the most comprehensive guide catalog of Athearn models available. The Standard Guide to Athearn Model Trains details more than 4,000 different models—2,000 of which are out of production—in an easy-to-use checklist format that will help you build and organize your collection.

Each listing details all of the information that you need to identify both rare and common kits: kit numbers, production dates, roadnames, car numbers and more. Also included is a handy rarity and value guide for out of production kits to help you determine how much your collection could be worth on the secondary market. You may have a very rare car variation and not even realize its value—with the help of this book you'll know. From Santa Fe Warbonnet FTs to modern Husky-Stack well cars this book has the colorful world of Athearn covered—it's a must-have for every model train enthusiast.

- Features Athearn locomotives, freight cars, passenger cars, and train sets
- More than 500 photos, including a 16-page color gallery
- Complete coverage of all varieties of Athearn scales
- Special sections on errors, special runs, and commemorative kits
