Hilton,2007-06-12 A day by day account of a woman traveling alone across the country in one direction or the other and what she saw or encountered along the way Getting in the car and hitting the highway is something the author has always loved to do This book contains personal trip logs of cross country trips from 1996 to the present time and includes a few side trips The near accidents funny signs how she amused and entertained herself on long boring stretches of highway some of the places she ate motels she stayed in and even the thoughts she had make interesting reading especially for an armchair traveler Traveling through storms or zigzagging between Interstate highways to avoid them and other decisions she made on the road are things any traveler can relate to Going out of the way in order to travel through country areas never seen before along roads never previously driven or being on some backroad for awhile were things she did not hesitate to do when the urge came to leave the current route Fast foods fast lanes and fast airplanes yet a leisurely pace prevailed when there was something of interest that required slowing down and taking a second look or changing to a different route An armchair traveler will find her trip logs to be both interesting and entertaining

The Bookman, 1921 Century Illustrated Monthly Magazine ..., 1921 California Highways and Public Works, 1930 The John Ireland Companion Lewis Foreman, 2011 John Ireland 1879 1962 was one of the most distinctive and distinguished of a generation of exceptional British composers that included Vaughan Williams Gustav Holst Frank Bridge and Arnold Bax They emerged in the decade before the First World War and in the inter war years produced a remarkable body of music In Ireland s case his was not only the most popular British Piano Concerto of its time but he also composed a splendid repertoire of songs piano music chamber music and orchestral and choral scores This richly illustrated Companion will be essential for all admirers of the composer Not only for the performer pianist singer conductor but for the wider musical public record collectors and music historians academics and anyone interested in British music of the earlier twentieth century The author has drawn on his extensive research into Ireland s life and letters over many years and in association with the John Ireland Charitable Trust has not only commissioned a wide range of chapters from leading performers and writers of today but has brought together in one convenient format Ireland s own writings on music the memories of his friends and students including Britten Moeran and Arnell and a selection of important earlier articles The Companion also includes a complete list of works and the most comprehensive discography of Ireland ever compiled The accompanying CD contains historical recordings featuring the voice of John Ireland with two of his broadcast talks as well as otherwise unobtainable performances of Ireland s music from the composer himself and from other well known performers of the past
