You know that moment when your whole world shifts and suddenly you're not sure what's real anymore? That's where I am. It started with a cryptic message from someone calling themselves Hawkeye, someone who seems to know too much about me and my brother. And now I'm caught between the thrill of unraveling these mysterious clues and the fear of what I might uncover. I thought my biggest challenge was getting through college, but apparently I'm also navigating a web of secrets that may be darker than I ever imagined. And then there's Jake, brooding, charming, and way too involved for my peace of mind. What's he hiding? Every move I make seems to lead me deeper into this maze, but I'm determined to figure it out. After all, the truth doesn't just reveal itself. It's messy, it's dangerous, and it might be the only way to finally understand why my brother left and what he was running from. I never thought I'd be the one facing this, but here I am, ready or not.
