Usable Past:

Human Liberation in a Feminist Perspective--a Theology Letty M. Russell, 1974-01-01 A feminist theologian relates the New Testament's message of salvation to contemporary struggles to achieve human equality and freedom

The Art of Growing Old Carroll Saussy, This book shows not only how to embrace the challenges of a long life but also how to engage the possibilities of creativity and depth of soul available to those who have acquired a wealth of experience

Activity suggestions are included making this ideal for both personal and group study

Girl/Friend Theology Dori Grinenko Baker, 2023-10-15 Images of God are rooted in us for better but sometimes for worse Adolescent girls and genderqueer teenagers often pay a heavy price when those images are oppressive But the best God images serve to free us all The work can be hard but Girl Friend Theology invites us to the work with joy playfulness and shared commitment Author Dori Baker updates her original work with expanded perspective added voices and stories and an ongoing dedication to liberating faith

Congressional Record United States. Congress, 1967-05

A Usable Past William James Bouwsma, 1990 Together the articles form a substantial book which traces the antecedents characteristics and impact of Renaissance thought and action beyond all schools with that combination of scholarly precision and personal style which has made Bouwsma one of the most highly respected historians on this continent

Palestine in Israeli School Books Nurit Peled-Elhanan, 2013-10-01 Each year Israel's young men and women are drafted into compulsory military service and are required to engage directly in the Israeli Palestinian conflict This conflict is by its nature intensely complex and is played out under the full glare of international security So how does Israel's education system prepare its young people for this How is Palestine and the Palestinians against whom these young Israelis will potentially be required to use force portrayed in the school system Nurit Peled Elhanan argues that the textbooks used in the school system are laced with a pro Israel ideology and that they play a part in priming Israeli children for military service She analyzes the presentation of images maps layouts and use of language in History Geography and Civic Studies textbooks and reveals how the books might be seen to marginalize Palestinians legitimize Israeli military action and reinforce Jewish Israeli territorial identity This book provides a fresh scholarly contribution to the Israeli Palestinian debate and will be relevant to the fields of Middle East Studies and Politics more widely

Memory and Authority Jack M. Balkin, 2024-02-27 From one of the nation's preeminent constitutional scholars a sweeping rethinking of the uses of history in constitutional interpretation Fights over history are at the heart of most important constitutional disputes in America The Supreme Court's current embrace of originalism is only the most recent example of how lawyers and judges try to use history to establish authority for their positions Jack M Balkin argues that fights over constitutional interpretation are often fights over collective memory Lawyers and judges construct and erase memory to lend authority to their present day views they make the past speak their values so they can then claim to follow it The seemingly opposed camps of originalism and living constitutionalism are actually mirror images of a single phenomenon how lawyers use history to adapt an ancient constitution to a constantly changing world Balkin shows how lawyers and judges channel history through standard forms of legal argument that shape how they use history and even what they see in history He explains how lawyers and judges invoke history selectively to construct authority for their claims and undermine the authority of opposing views And he elucidates the perpetual quarrel between historians and lawyers showing how the two can best join issue in legal disputes This book is a sweeping rethinking of the uses of history in constitutional interpretation

Best Short Stories Martha Foley, Edward Joseph O'Brien, 1919 The Best Short Stories of ... and the Yearbook of the American Short Story, 1919 American Folklore Studies Simon J. Bronner, 1986 Poetry Harriet Monroe, 1918 The Usable Past K. S. Brown, Yannis Hamilakis, 2002-11-27 In this volume K S Brown and Yannis Hamilakis bring together scholars of history archaeology and anthropology to explore the located and contextual nature of historical narratives The contributors analyze contested historic rituals building styles and traditions looking through the unique lens of twentieth century Greek identity paying particular attention to the ways these social phenomena and cultural artifacts manifest tension between official and unofficial narratives of the past Though focused on the changing historical basis of Greek culture and identity this work further serves as an important theoretical contemplation of how our view of the past is shaped by our relationship with the present

The Dial Francis Fisher Browne, Waldo Ralph Browne, Scofield Thayer, 1918 The Legend of John Wilkes Booth C. Wyatt Evans, 2004 The Legend of John Wilkes Booth is a story of how collective memories and popular histories collide with clash and sometimes overcome mainstream accounts of the past It offers an alternate venue for studying the workings of Civil War memory in American culture and demonstrates how and why culture produced at the grassroots level can challenge the official version of events BOOK JACKET America's National Monuments Hal Rothman, 1989 Rothman traces the evolution of federal preservation He shows how laws policies personalities personal and bureaucratic rivalries and a changing cultural climate affected preservation efforts he illustrates how the national park system has functioned and changed over the years as public officials have tried to implement federal policy at the grassroots level American Review Vivian Trow Thayer, 1924 Includes section Books The Social Contract in America Mark Hülling, 2007 The first comprehensive examination of the social contract's role in American political development Traces the history of the contract the closest thing we have to a common philosophy from its role in the Founding up to current day debates and charts its rise and demise in influence over American political thought A Life with History John Morton Blum, 2004 The author of such classic works as The Republican Roosevelt V Was for Victory and Years of Discord John Morton Blum is one of a small group of intellectuals who for more than a quarter of a century dominated the writing of American political history Writing now of his own career Blum provides a behind the scenes look at Ivy League education and political power from the 1940s to the 1980s Blum insightfully recounts a long and distinguished journey that began at Phillips Academy where he first realized he could make a career of teaching and writing history He tells how young men were socialized to the values of the Northeastern establishment in those years before World War II and how as a non practicing Jew he learned to overcome bigotry both at Andover and at Harvard which then had no Jewish professors In 1957 Blum joined the faculty of Yale University s history department widely regarded as the nation s best where he became both influential and popular and where his students included one future U S president as well as others who aspired to the office He reveals much about the inner workings of Ivy League education and tells of controversies over the Vietnam War and the Black Panthers his role in Eugene McCarthy s presidential campaign and how he searched for common ground between reactionary faculty and radical students More than a recounting of a singular life Blum s story explains how political history was researched and written during the second half of the twentieth century describing how the discipline evolved gained ascendancy and was challenged as historical fashions changed It also offers revealing glimpses of such prominent academics as Kingman Brewster Arthur Schlesinger Jr C Vann Woodward and William Sloan Coffin Over a distinguished career Blum witnessed considerable change in elite educational institutions where minorities and women were grossly underrepresented when he first entered academia In a memoir brimming with insight and laced with humor he looks back at the academy not a refuge from reality but an alternative reality as he reflects upon his intellectual journey and his contributions to the study and writing of twentieth century American history

Russian War Films Denise Jeanne Youngblood,2007 A panoramic survey of nearly a century of Russian films on wars and wartime from World War I to more recent conflicts in Afghanistan and Chechnya with heavy emphasis on films pertaining to World War II
