Without Home:

A Year Without Home V. T. Bidania, 2026-01-13 A poignant novel in verse about a Hmong girl losing and finding home in the aftermath of the Vietnam War For fans of Jasmine Warga and Veera Hiranandani As gripping as it is informative and as beautiful as it is heartbreaking A Year Without Home does what all great books do spark curiosity ignite compassion and leave its readers changed for the better The young people who read V T Bidania s story will feel energized and empowered to make their future kinder more peaceful and more just than either the past or our present Jarrett Lerner award winning author illustrator of A Work in Progress For eleven year old Gao Sheng home is the lush humid jungles and highlands of Laos Home is where she can roll down the grassy hill with her younger siblings after her chores walk to school and pick ripe peaches from her family s trees But home becomes impossible to hold onto when the communist government takes over after U S troops pull out of the Vietnam War The communists will be searching for any American allies like Gao Sheng s father a Hmong captain in the Lao Army who fought alongside the Americans against the Vietnamese If he s caught he ll be killed As the adults frantically make plans contacting family preparing a route and bundling up their silver and gold Gao Sheng wonders if she will ever return to her beloved Laos and what s to become of her family now Gao Sheng only knows that a good daughter doesn t ask questions or complain A good daughter doesn t let her family down Even though sometimes she wishes she could be just a kid rolling down a grassy hill again On foot by taxi and finally in a canoe Gao Sheng and her family make haste from the mountains to the capitol Vientiane and across the rushing Mekong River to finally arrive at an overcrowded refugee camp in Thailand As a year passes at the camp Gao Sheng discovers how to rebuild home no matter where she is and finally find her voice Inspired by author V T Bidania s family history A Year Without Home illuminates the long difficult journey that many Hmong refugees faced after the Vietnam War

America's Shame Barbara A. Arrighi, 1997-07-30 Rejecting those who urge a bootstrap approach to people living in extreme poverty on the edge of society sociologist Barbara Arrighi makes an eloquent compassionate plea for empathy and collective responsibility toward those for whom either the boots or the straps are missing This book further offers solutions in consciousness raising community collaboration and informed responsible public policy The book is a critique of a system that purports to serve yet sometimes impedes the welfare of those who are in need of the basic elements for survival including affordable shelter It analyzes the structural factors of poverty and the social psychological costs of being poor and lacking a home Utilizing interview findings from families who have lived in a shelter in northern Kentucky and from staff members the book examines the degrading effects of shelter life on women s self respect and children s development Rather than an examination of individual pathologies leading to lack of shelter it centers on women and children living in shelters and offers a sociological study of poverty and the family
