

*...under the consecrated Tent,
where we so often pressed around
our paternal commander in chief...*

*Marquis de Lafayette,
October 7, 1824*

Be remembered and loved and wept.

The Marquis de Lafayette, a part of our American identity, is being honored in 2024, 200 years from his death in 1834. An iconic figure who led the fight for liberty, he inspired the American people and fought alongside George Washington during the Revolutionary War. It was his presence that led to the signing of the Declaration of Independence. He was the first European to see the first stars of the new nation of the United States. His story is a testament to the values of the American Revolution and the enduring legacy of our nation's founding fathers.

The year marks the 200th anniversary of Lafayette's last public appearance in America. Washington's last appearance, it is to be held at the Museum of the American Revolution. Being the national historic site, it is an important opportunity for American and international visitors alike.

With history Washington's last appearance, the present has a chance to be part of the future.
