SHORTLISTED 2024 Ned Kelly Awards Best Fiction They keep everyone s secrets until there s a murder Sydney 1965 After a chance encounter with a stranger tea ladies Hazel Betty and Irene become accidental sleuths stumbling into a world of ruthless crooks and racketeers in search of a young woman believed to be in danger In the meantime Hazel s job at Empire Fashionwear is in jeopardy The firm has turned out the same frocks and blouses for the past twenty years and when the mini skirt bursts onto the scene it rocks the rag trade to its foundations War breaks out between departments and it falls to Hazel the quiet diplomat to broker peace and save the firm When there is a murder in the building the tea ladies draw on their wider network and put themselves in danger as they piece together clues that connect the murder to a nearby arson and a kidnapping But if there s one thing tea ladies can handle it s hot water The Tea Ladies is a total joy With her ear for dialogue and eye for authentic detail Amanda Hampson has created a refreshing take on a murder mystery that is both wickedly funny implementation of Philosophy for Children in four Washington D C public schools between 1987 and 1989 It provides commentary and arguments by district superintendent Thomas Harper Philosophy for Children creator Matthew Lipman and the editor the philosopher and founder of Philosophy Born of Struggle Leonard Harris as well as selections of in class diaries from teachers using the Philosophy for Children program As Harris explains These schools are located in historically strong middle and lower middle class African American communities facing the relative new growth of social fragmentation drug use and adolescent crime Lipman argues that Philosophy for Children is uniquely relevant to the educational needs of this populations because children who come from disadvantaged underprivileged families need educational programs that offer them cognitive skills that can emerge out of their already impressive linguistic competencies that help them think for themselves and provide them with a sense of belonging a sense of community and because the community of philosophical inquiry seeks instead to establish an atmosphere of mutual respect intellectual openness freedom to question and criticize and courage to confront whatever enigmas life has to offer Harris argues that the teaching of critical thinking should be situated within the context of a redefined educational mission suited to both the resistance tradition of African American culture and the pariah of postmodern cultural chaos      Ladies' Home Journal and Practical Housekeeper ,1898
