Transformative Vision:

The Transformative Development of Postcolonial Africa Annie Sylvie Beya Wakata, Siméon Fogue Kouam, Rosemary Tonjock Kinge, Téléphore Benoît Nguélefack, Aloysius Ngefac, 2024-04-15 This book provides an opportunity for the voices of pure and natural scientists to be heard on what can be done to pull Africa from its current developmental quagmire and bring about its transformative development characterized by hallmarks that challenge the traditional definition of development The following research questions and many more are answered in this book Which development vision addresses the multidimensional problems and crises plaguing postcolonial Africa Which context specific approaches and paradigms tackle some of the problems and re write the development story of Africa What is the role of pure and natural sciences in the project of rethinking and remaking Africa Transdisciplinary reflections from development experts and authors of different disciplines provide answers to these questions among others

Narrative Meditation Terry Clancy, 2018-11-06 This book is written for people interested in meditation Narrative Meditation is based on nursing practice of the therapeutic use of self Awareness of what the self is changes through experience and meditation The journey is understanding what the self is The quest is to use self to change experience This book is about Narrative Meditation It is learnt in three stages The stages are deeper levels of meditation Deeper levels of meditation are different levels of healing Narrative Meditation is a method of self healing to maximise our potential for health well being and happiness As a method it is a neuroplastic exercise of change in awareness experience and belief Another narrative has been evolving through our stories of change the remembering of identity as the self The first objective of this book is understanding what the self is The self is as a state of quantum consciousness of vision accessed through meditation and used as mindfulness of goals Understanding is a change in awareness The second is access to a deeper level of meditation Meditation is accessed through the transformative vision Understanding what the self is gives the transformative vision meaning as the state of meditation and purpose as healing as the transformative vision is remembered

Transforming Self and Others through Research Rosemarie Anderson, William Braud, 2011-09-01 Research approaches in the field of transpersonal psychology can be transformative for researchers participants and the audience of a project This book offers these transformative approaches to those conducting research across the human sciences and the humanities Rosemarie Anderson and William Braud first described such methods in Transpersonal Research Methods for the Social Sciences 1998 Since that time in hundreds of empirical studies these methods have been tested and integrated with qualitative quantitative and mixed method research designs Anderson and Braud writing with a contribution from Jennifer Clements invite scholars to bring multiple ways of knowing and personal resources to their scholarship While emphasizing established research conventions for rigor Anderson and Braud encourage researchers to plumb the depths of intuition imagination play mindfulness compassion creativity and embodied writing as research skills Experiential exercises to help readers develop these skills are provided

Little Theologians David M.

Csinos,2020-11-18 Children don't just learn theology They actively create it playing with ideas and drawing together aspects of their own lives to form theological understanding In Little Theologians David Csinos offers a groundbreaking exploration of how cultural contexts intersect with the theological meaning making of children The qualitative research that Csinos undertook opened windows onto the religious and spiritual lives of children within four culturally distinct congregations of the United Church of Canada He began by inviting the children to draw pictures of God and encouraging them to describe what they had drawn Their answers led to revealing exchanges about who God is how children understand spiritual experiences what it means to believe and what it means that people may believe differently This innovative study offers an in depth look at each congregation and how children make theological meaning in ways that reflect the broader culture around them as well as ways that are all their own By illuminating the diverse theological understanding of children Csinos highlights characteristics that are shared among children and those that are unique to each child Providing a radical twist of perspective Little Theologians looks to the theological insights and experiences of children to provide a lens for critiquing broader discourses surrounding cultural diversity and spirituality
