The Guiltless:

The Guiltless Hermann Broch, 2000 Murder lust shame hypocrisy and suicide are at the center of The Guiltless Hermann Broch's postwar novel about the disintegration of European society in the three decades preceding the Second World War Broch's characters an apathetic man who can barely remember his own name a high school teacher and his lover who return from the brink of a suicide pact to carry on a dishonest relationship Zerline a lady's maid who enslaves her mistresses prostitutes the young country girl Melitta and metes out her own justice against the empty wickedness of her betters are trapped in their indifference prisoners of a sort of wakeful somnolence These men and women may mention the imbecile Hitler yet they prefer a nap or sexual encounter to any social action Broch thought the kind of ethical perversity and political apathy exhibited by his characters paved the way for Nazism He believed in the purifying power of writing and hoped that by revealing Germany's underlying guilt he could purge indifference from his own and future generations In The Guiltless Broch captures how apathy and ennui very human failings evolve into something dehumanizing and dangerous Book Jacket

Theology and Practice of Mission Bruce Riley Ashford, 2011-09-01 Theology disconnected from mission is not Christian theology at all The pastors professors and missionaries writing Theology and Practice of Mission provide a clear biblical theological framework for understanding the church's mission to the nations Toward that goal the book holds three major sections God's mission the church's mission and the church's mission to the nations Part one explores the canon of Christian Scripture from narrative and systematic angles explaining how the mission of God to redeem a people who will be a kingdom of priests to the praise of his glory bear witness to his gospel advance his church and dwell with him forever on a new heaven and earth is communicated in the Bible's four movements Creation Fall Redemption and Restoration Part two sees the mission of God's people in the light of God's mission emphasizing not only preaching and church planting but also gospel witness in every dimension of human culture glorifying God in family church work community through the arts sciences education business and the public square The writers encourage us to live missionally leaving all of our resources at God's disposal for the sake of his kingdom Finally part three contends that the North American church must come to terms with its missional calling just as international missionaries do and gives a starting point and parameters for conceiving the church's mission to all people groups and cultural contexts. Chapters here include ones on unreached people groups, Muslims, Hindus, Buddhists, and Postmoderns. Writology: FreshMarks & SophStrokes (Volumes II & III of the Writologist Series--Economy Style) H.A. Calahan, 2016-08-26. Welcome back to the journey. The journey of Writology takes you the reader on a chronological journey of evolutionary writing. Using all original creations, the author showcases how writing does not happen overnight. Just as coals turn into diamonds, so too does writing take time to become polished to perfection. Volumes II and III continue the journey by collecting his Freshmen and Sophomore years of high school level works. Volume II encompasses early attempts at research works. Volume III, considered by the author to be the richest part of the entire planned Writologist Series, establishes writing becoming a core passion for H.A. Calahan. As with Volume I, these collected volumes contain original sketches and artwork created by the author, accented with author commentary. Several suggested exercises based on original assignments or creations are also included to help readers continue their own journey. This journey continues now. The Economy style is printed in black and white. Some Family Records & Pedigrees of the Lloyds ..., 1913
