The Love Commandment in Mark George Keerankeri, 2003 This research work investigates the problem whether the texts of the love commandment of Mk 12 28 34 which are quotations of Deut 6 4 5 and Lev 19 18 have their original OT meaning in the gospel of Mark or whether they acquire besides this a specific Markan enrichment The study not only affirms such a specificity but also demonstrates its richness and depth It establishes that the distinctiveness of the Markan conception of the love commandment is closely linked to the person of Jesus and is expressed in a multiplicity of data both formal and thematic which can be discovered in an integral reading of the gospel The methodology employed is modern redaction criticism which differs from classical Redaction criticism in that it is synchronic and takes the text as it stands as a coherent and wholistic document to be understood in terms of itself and thus studies it in an integral reading The investigation has two parts involving four chapters and a general conclusion Part I comprising Ch I and Ch II dwells on the OT meaning and context of the texts of the love commandment and provides a lucid account of them which serves as the basis for its study in the gospel Part II researches the commandment in Mk in two chapters Of these Ch III represents the gospel's theoretical interpretation of the commandment and Ch IV Jesus fulfillment of it in the Passion his instruction by example Together they complete Mark's total interpretation of the love commandment Following this the general conclusion sees the Markan specificities in a unifying theological vision defined by the gospel's Christology and closes by drawing its consequences George Keerankeri was born on 10 December 1944 at Kothanalloor in Kerala India He entered the Society of Jesus in 1962 and was ordained a priest in 1974 He holds an M A in Social Cultural Anthropology and completed his Licentiate in Sacred Scripture LSS at the Pontifical Biblical Institute Rome in 1979 Ever since he is a lecturer of the New Testament at Vidyajyoti College of Theology the Jesuit Faculty of Theology in Delhi India

The Ten Commandments

William P. Brown, 2004-01-01 Offering a host of classic and new essays surveying the scholarly ethical and biblical debate surrounding the Ten Commandments William Brown organizes his volume into three parts the history of interpretation contemporary reflections on the Decalogue as a whole and contemporary reflections on individual commandments A useful addition to ethics as well as Old Testament and Hebrew Bible courses Brown's The Ten Commandments will be a standard reference for all Decalogue research as it facilitates a helpful balance between moral theological and biblical study The Library of Theological Ethics series focuses on what it means to think theologically and ethically It presents a selection of important and otherwise unavailable texts in easily accessible form Volumes in this series will enable sustained dialogue with predecessors though reflection on classic works in the field Programmes of sermons and instructions, comprising the Apostles' creed; the commandments of God [&c.]. Programmes,1881 What Did Jesus Mean? Anna Wierzbicka,2001

Linguist Anna Wierzbicka casts new light on the words of Jesus by taking her theory of universal human concepts and bringing it to bear on Jesus parables and the Sermon on the Mount Her approach results in strikingly novel interpretations

Christ, Scripture, and Reality Steven C. van den Heuvel,Hans Burger,Hans Schaeffer,2026-03-20 This volume focuses attention on four key themes in Christian ethics hermeneutics spirituality kingdom ethics and homosexuality These themes feature prominently in the work of the Dutch theologian and ethicist Ad de Bruijne De Bruijne developed an ethics that combines a focus on Christ with an emphasis on spirituality and on the kingdom of God with a focus on public theology having an open eye for cultural developments In his method for doing ethics he moves beyond the foundationalist tendencies of his own tradition inspired by ethicists like Stanley Hauerwas and Oliver O Donovan as well as by Abraham Kuyper an important voice in his own neo Calvinist tradition Recently he demonstrated the strength of his approach in an impressive and courageous study about homosexuality This book makes his work available to an international audience by demonstrating its significance and taking De Bruijne s work as a starting point for further ethical reflections in dialogue with him Until his retirement in 2026 Ad de Bruijne was Professor of Christian Ethics and Spirituality at the Theological University Utrecht the Netherlands

They Went Out from Us Daniel R. Streett,2011 Most interpreters of 1 2 3 John believe that the author s opponents called antichrists deceivers and false prophets advocated gnostic or progressive doctrines that denied or downplayed the humanity of Jesus Christ and the importance of ethical behaviour and eventually split the Johannine community Against this consensus Streett argues that the opponents are former Jewish Christians who have left the community to return to the synagogue after renouncing their belief that Jesus is the Jewish Messiah St. Thomas
