Victims In Context:

Crime Victims in Context Leslie W. Kennedy, Vincent Sacco, 1998 This is the most up to date and thought provoking undergraduate text on the controversial topic of victimology available It features a lively engaging writing style Designed for the American college and university market this book is groundbreaking in its integrated approach to the study of society s crime victims and the forces that influence their victimization This approach eases instruction by encouraging students to engage in critical thinking about victims helping students understand how victimization relates to the social context in which victims live Crime Victims in Context explores the following themes Ways in which the victim role is constructed in the media in public discourse and in political responses to crime This sets the stage for rethinking the meaning of victimization Approaching victimization as a social event the social exchanges or transactions between victim and offender An exploration of the aftermath of crime examining the effects of crime on the victim including the physical and socio emotional costs of victimization Responses by the criminal justice system in the adjudication of offender guilt as well as victim support groups Coverage includes both sides of such controversial issues as fear of crime victim blaming the abuse excuse white collar victimization and restorative justice The discussion of culture and the discussion of victims and victimization as moral stratification are innovative features of this text There is extensive treatment of victimization theories and a review of data collection procedures used in collecting information about victimization Numerous examples drawn from real life and recent research serve to illustrate points throughout the book Internet references are also included

Thinking About Victimization Jillian J. Turanovic, Travis C. Pratt, 2019-04-09 Bringing together cutting edge theory and research that bridges academic disciplines from criminology and criminal justice to developmental psychology sociology and political science Thinking About Victimization offers an authoritative comprehensive and refreshingly accessible overview of scholarship on the nature sources and consequences of victimization Written in a lively style with sharp storytelling and an appreciation of international research on victimization this book is rooted in a healthy respect for criminological history and the foundational works in victimization studies It provides a detailed account of how different data sources can influence our understanding of victimization of how the sources of victimization individual situational and contextual are complicated and varied and of how the consequences of victimization personal legal and political are just as complex This book also engages with contemporary issues such as cybervictimization intimate partner violence and sexual victimization prison violence and victimization and terrorism and state sponsored violence Thinking About Victimization is essential reading for advanced courses in victimization offered in criminology criminal justice sociology social work and public policy departments With its unapologetic reliance on theory and research combined with its easy readability undergraduate and graduate students alike will find much to learn in these pages

Crime and its Social Context Terance D. Miethe, Robert Frank Meier, 1994-01-01 Theories of criminality and theories of victimization have traditionally been discussed as though they bore no relationship to one another Yet a complete explanation for crime must examine both the decision to engage in crime by an offender and the everyday actions of ordinary citizens that increase vulnerability to criminals The integration of these approaches yields testable models that have greater predictive power than could be obtained by looking only at models of offenders or models of victim behavior A more general perspective that accounts for both the decision to engage in crime and the selection of particular crime targets is developed and tested

Victim Assistance Thomas L. Underwood, Christine Edmunds, 2003 Based on the acclaimed professional certificate program Advanced Institute on Victim Studies Critical Analysis of Victim Assistance this book identifies core content areas essential for practitioners working with crime victims Recognizing the multidisciplinary multisystem field that encompasses victim assistance the contributors present a solid foundation of the varying concepts and theories on victims and victims services The balance of the text addresses the skills and strategies needed to enhance services to victims at the individual organizational and societal levels Each chapter concludes with an analysis and application section including representative scenarios and key questions for review

Reporting Crime: Effects of social context on the decision of victims to notify the police Heike Goudriaan, 2006

Phishing and Countermeasures Markus Jakobsson, Steven Myers, 2006-12-05 Phishing and Counter Measures discusses how and why phishing is a threat and presents effective countermeasures Showing you how phishing attacks have been mounting over the years how to detect and prevent current as well as future attacks this text focuses on corporations who supply the resources used by attackers The authors subsequently deliberate on what action the government can take to respond to this situation and compare adequate versus inadequate countermeasures

Transnational Networks and Justice in the Global South Tonny Raymond Kirabira, 2025-11-11 This book contributes new insights into the construction and implementation of global justice across different constituencies in the Global South In particular it investigates the impact of NGOs and victims representatives on redress mechanisms for mass atrocities and violence using the scholarly field of transitional justice By utilising this scholarly lens the book is able to draw into a wide range of discussions and mechanisms aimed at addressing mass violence and armed conflict in the Global South These discussions are in line with the central question of how NGOs impact on the legitimacy of transitional justice processes The book thus examines the question analytically and empirically using the theory of legitimacy as one of the ways in which to explain the power dynamics of global justice and institutions It offers significant contributions to the existing literature on legitimacy in transitional justice with country case specific examples of Uganda and Myanmar While the book is broadly framed within the scholarly field of transitional justice it draws on two branches of international law International Human Rights Law IHRL and International Criminal Law ICL It also benefits from scholarship in the field of international relations to explicate the legitimacy and institutional power of NGOs and international courts These disciplines are converged through the literature review and analysis The book will make a new contribution by adding empirical data on NGO work in transitional justice from two case studies The thrust of the argument is that NGOs either enhance or reduce the legitimacy of transitional justice mechanisms The concept of legitimacy will be used to analyse the way in which transitional justice is implemented

Restorative Justice in Context Elmar G. M. Weitekamp, Hans-Jürgen Kerner, 2003 Moves beyond a focus on restorative justice for juveniles to a broader concern with the application of restorative justice in such areas as corporate crime family violence and the application of restorative justice in cases of extreme violent crimes The contexts examined are drawn from Europe North America Australasia and Japan Back cover

Victim-Centred Peacemaking Roddy Brett, 2012-12-09 Based on unique empirical research into Colombia's Santos FARC EP peace process 2012-2016 this book interrogates how if at all survivors and victims may assert agency and contribute to formal peacemaking and transitional justice initiatives The book argues that victim inclusion meaningfully transformed victim perpetrator relations and dynamics in Havana while partially shaping the content of both the Victims Agreement and Final Agreement As such the delegations created paths for empowerment at the individual and in part collective levels However victim inclusion also precipitated experiences of victim depoliticization revictimization retraumatization and instrumentalization Drawing on insights from across academic disciplines the book proposes an instrumentalization empowerment spectrum to analyse the complex impact of victim centred approaches to peacemaking transitional justice and is valuable for both researchers and practitioners
