Lehman, Jay Heale, Anne Hill, 2014-10-01 This collection of essays analyzes the work of 29 authors and illustrators South African children's and youth literature has a long history The country is the most prolific publisher of children's books on the continent producing perhaps the highest quality literature in Africa Its traditions resonate within the larger world of children's literature but are solidly grounded in African myth and archetypes The African diaspora in the U S and elsewhere have stories rooted in these oral traditions Much has changed in South African literature for children since the 1994 transformation of the country A field once dominated by all white and mostly female writers and illustrators has diversified adding many new voices National Character in South African English Children's Literature Elwyn Jenkins, 2006 This is the first full length study of South African English youth literature to cover the entire period of its publication from the late nineteenth century to the early twenty first century What gives this book particular strength is its coverage of literature up to the 1960s which has until now recieved almost no scholarly attention Not only is this earlier literature a rewarding subject for study in itself but it also throws light on subsequent literary developments Jenkins also makes comparisons with American Canadian and Australian children's literature This book is essential reading for anyone seeking to understand children's literature in the context of adult South African literature and South African cultural history BOOK JACKET Kaapse bibliotekaris, 1991 Issues for Nov 1957 include section Accessions Aanwinste Sept 1957 Brehm's Life of Animals Alfred Edmund Brehm, 1896 Rescue at First Encounter Beach Pearl Neuman, 1999 America, 1916

Stellenbosch Writers Rosemarie Breuer, 2005 Adamastor Jay Heale, 2004 Storyland, 1991 Boikie, You Better Believe it Dianne Hofmeyr, 1994 My pa sees things Not just muggings and knife fights and hot wired cars and men dressed like women with purple hair and all the ordinary things you see in the streets of Hillbrow every day I mean other sorts of things Like like dreams and visions and auras and things Sometimes I think it's the spirits I don't mean real spirits like in spooks but spirits that come from looking too deep into a brandy bottle at Charlie s Corner But then again there are other times There are those times when Pa runs his fingers through his long ginger beard and his hair stands on end like a dirty tangled halo and he leans back in his chair with his brown stitched cowboy boots on the table in front of me and his voice rumbles and rolls like a suburban bus and he fixes me with his one twinkling good eye and he say to me Boikie you better believe it And all of a sudden especially if I can t smell the brandy on his breath I m not so sure any more Does Pa really see things that other people can t see Or has he just been tasting too much of Mr Rahim s special masala and jeera and ground and red chilli mix again
