members of Jeremiah's family Through all this we see a man making his way in a world he could not have imagined while growing up in rural Buckinghamshire He lived during an important historical time for South Africa not only observing and fighting the wars but meeting and serving with some of the most famous names in South African history He saw in detail the effects of the Cattle Killing of 1856 the Boer uprising in the Orange River Sovereignty as well as several other famous and notorious historical events The text has been published once only by the van Riebeeck Society in 1949 and since then has been used by scholars and historians as a primary source It has not been widely read because Jeremiah had no education and although he had an extraordinary ability to describe experience and express his emotions he was a stranger to the conventions of written language Now Ralph Goldswain has transcribed the original text into an accessible account of forty years of frontier history     National Painters Magazine ,1915     Heating & Air Conditioning Contractor ,1927     The American Art Printer ,1887     Railway Age ,1926
