The Long Way:

It's a Long Way Down to the Top David H. Stroud, 2012-10-17 Enter into rest Where do you come to rest internally The heart of flesh pumps blood and the heart of the spirit resides in the mind True rest must first be in the mind and the heart for the whole person and the whole life to rest Activity and rest of the body soul and spirit are life In His image the Lord made our life in perfection of purpose intent and craftsmanship Where do you come to rest in His presence with the extra ingredient of your purpose intent and craftsmanship How do you enter activity in Him or in you Are you a citizen of heaven in yearning confident expectation or an earthling putting down roots as he thinks in his heart so is he Prov 23 7 A Long Way from Home Claude McKay, 2007 McKay's account of his long odyssey from Jamaica to Harlem and then on to France Britain North Africa Russia and finally back to America As well as depicting his own experiences the author describes his encounters with such notable personalities as Charlie Chaplin George Bernard Shaw H G Wells Leon Trotsky W E B Du Bois Isadora Duncan Paul Robeson and Sinclair Lewis Learn To Love Yourself Again Allen Dekeyser, Learn To Love Yourself Again is a deeply honest emotionally healing journey back to the heart of who you are In this beautifully written and illustrated self help memoir Allen Dekeyser shares the quiet truths and powerful awakenings that helped him stop chasing validation release shame and finally return home to himself Through 20 powerful chapters each paired with affirmations journal prompts and full page artwork you'll walk alongside a voice that's been in the valley and found a way out Whether you're healing from trauma recovering from self neglect or learning to finally choose yourself this book offers more than inspiration it offers proof that loving yourself again is not only possible it's necessary You're not too much You're not too late You're not alone The Post-Racial Limits of Memorialization Alfred Frankowski, 2015-11-09 The Post Racial Limits of Memorialization Toward a Political Sense of Mourning attempts to show how post racial discourse in general and post racial memory specifically operates as a context through which the memorialization of anti black violence and the production of new forms of this violence are connected Alfred Frankowski argues that aside from being symbolically meaningful the post racial context requires that memorialization of anti black violence in the past produces memory as a type of forgetting By challenging many of tenants of the critical turn in political philosophy and aesthetics he argues against a politics of reconciliation and for a political sense of mourning that amplifies the universality of violence embedded in our contemporary sensibility He argues for a sense of mourning that requires that we deepen our understanding of how remembrance and resistance to oppression remain linked and necessitates a fluid and active reconfiguration relative to the context in which this oppression exists

Additionally, many universities and educational institutions have their own digital libraries that provide free access to PDF books and manuals.

These libraries often offer academic texts, research papers, and technical manuals, making them invaluable resources for students and researchers. Some notable examples include MIT OpenCourseWare, which offers free access to course materials from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and the Digital Public Library of America, which provides a vast collection of digitized books and historical documents.
