Pace-Schott, Birgit Kleim, Candice A. Alfano, 2023-02-08 Enlightened Nightscapes Pamela F. Phillips, 2023-04-03 This volume brings together eleven case studies that address how the night became visible in the long and global eighteenth century through different mediums and in different geographical contexts Situated on the eve of the introduction of artificial lighting the long eighteenth century has much to say about night's darkness and brilliance The eighteenth century has been bound up epistemologically with images of light reason and order Night and day light and darkness reason and mystery however are not necessarily at odds in the eighteenth century In their analysis of narratives poetry urban spaces music the visual arts and geological phenomena the essays provide various frameworks to examine the representation treatment and meaning of the enlightened night The transnational and multidisciplinary nature of the volume presents a survey of the research currently being done in the field of the long eighteenth century night This collection contributes to an ongoing exercise that questions the accepted definitions of the Enlightenment and by bringing Eighteenth Century Studies into dialogue with Night Studies it enriches the critical conversation between these lines of research

Playing the Waves Jan Simons, 2007 Dogma 95 the avant garde filmmaking movement founded by the Danish director Lars von Trier and three of his fellow directors was launched in 1995 at an elite cinema conference in Paris when von Trier was called upon to speak about the future of film but instead showered the audience with pamphlets announcing the new movement and its manifesto A refreshingly original critical commentary on the director and his practice Playing the Waves is a paramount addition to one of new media's most provocative genres games and gaming Playing the Waves cleverly puns on the title of one of von Trier's most famous features and argues that Dogma 95 like much of the director's low budget realist productions is a game that takes cinema beyond the traditional confines of film aesthetics and dramatic rules Simons articulates the ways in which von Trier redefines the practice of filmmaking as a rule bound activity and stipulates the forms and structures of games von Trier brings to bear on his films as well as the sobering lessons he draws from economic and evolutionary game theory Much like the director's films this fascinating volume takes the traditional point of view of film theory and film aesthetics to the next level and demonstrates we have much to learn from the perspective of game studies and game theory Speed the Plough Thomas Morton, 1926 The Poems of Winthrop Mackworth Praed Winthrop Mackworth Praed, 1874 The Independent , 1924 *Answers of the ages [compiled by] I.K.L., L.C.W.
