The Tempest Classicscript:

The Oxford History of Classical Reception in English Literature Patrick Cheney, Philip Hardie, 2015-10-29 The Oxford History of Classical Reception OHCREL is designed to offer a comprehensive investigation of the numerous and diverse ways in which literary texts of the classical world have stimulated responses and refashioning by English writers Covering the full range of English literature from the early Middle Ages to the present day OHCREL both synthesizes existing scholarship and presents cutting edge new research employing an international team of expert contributors for each of the five volumes OHCREL endeavours to interrogate rather than inertly reiterate conventional assumptions about literary periods the processes of canon formation and the relations between literary and non literary discourse It conceives of reception as a complex process of dialogic exchange and rather than offering large cultural generalizations it engages in close critical analysis of literary texts It explores in detail the ways in which English writers engagement with classical literature casts as much light on the classical originals as it does on the English writers own cultural context This second volume covers the years 1558 1660 and explores the reception of the ancient genres and authors in English Renaissance literature engaging with the major and many of the minor writers of the period including Shakespeare Marlowe Spenser and Jonson Separate chapters examine the Renaissance institutions and contexts which shape the reception of antiquity and an annotated bibliography provides substantial material for further reading

Classical Traditions in Science Fiction Brett M. Rogers, Benjamin Eldon Stevens, 2015 For all its concern with change in the present and future science fiction is deeply rooted in the past and surprisingly engages especially deeply with the ancient world Indeed both as an area in which the meaning of classics is actively transformed and as an open ended set of texts whose own classic status is a matter of ongoing debate science fiction reveals much about the roles played by ancient classics in modern times Classical Traditions in Science Fiction is the first collection in English dedicated to the study of science fiction as a site of classical receptions offering a much needed mapping of that important cultural and intellectual terrain This volume discusses a wide variety of representative examples from both classical antiquity and the past four hundred years of science fiction beginning with science fiction s rosy fingered dawn and moving toward the other worldly literature of the present day As it makes its way through the eras of science fiction Classical Traditions in Science Fiction exposes the many levels on which science fiction engages the ideas of the ancient world from minute matters of language and structure to the larger thematic and philosophical concerns

Costumes and Scripts in the Elizabethan Theatres Jean MacIntyre, 1992 The scripts of the Admiral s Men later Prince Henry s Men the Chamberlain s Men later the King s Men

boy actors and Worcester's Queen Anne's Men are examined in detail to document the differing costume practices of these companies especially the ways in which in their earlier days they reconciled visual splendor with the greatest possible economy Post Script, 1993 Essays in film and the humanities Classics and Trash Harriett Hawkins, 1990 The book begins by surveying the traditions and taboos governing the portrayal of heroes and villains in high literature and popular genres alike The second section compares portrayals of talented women and their Svengali The third section treats the influence of Shakespeare on popular stage shows and films The National Union Catalogs, 1963-, 1964 The Cloud-Capped Star (Meghe Dhaka Tara) Manishita Dass, 2020-10-01 Ritwik Ghatak's The Cloud Capped Star Meghe Dhaka Tara 1960 has been hailed as one of the great classics of world cinema Adrian Martin and one of the five or six greatest melodramas in cinema history Serge Daney A striking blend of modernist aesthetics and melodramatic force it is arguably the best known film by Ghatak widely considered to be one of the most original politically committed and formally innovative film makers from India The film's focus on a family uprooted by the Partition of India and its powerful exploration of displacement and historical trauma gives it a renewed relevance in the midst of a global refugee crisis Manishita Dass situates the film in its historical and cultural contexts and within Ghatak's film making career and connects it to his theatrical work and his writings on film and theatre Her close reading of the film locates its emotional and intellectual power in what she describes as its cinematic theatricality and brings into focus Ghatak's modernist experiments with melodramatic devices his deliberate departures from cinematic realism and distinctive use of sound and music The book draws on extensive archival research excavates new layers of meaning and offers fresh insights into the cosmopolitan cinematic sensibility of a director described as one of the most neglected major film makers in the world Jonathan Rosenbaum The Classical Weekly, 1924 Cinefantastique, 1998 The Penguin Guide to Recorded Classical Music, 2008 The Classical World, 1922 New York School Journal, 1897 Derek Jarman Michael O'Pray, 1996 No Marketing Blurb The American Bookseller, 1886 Cinematic Translation of Ionel Teodoreanu's Lorelei Doris Plantus-Runey, 2007 Having earned his place in Romanian literary history with his consummate trilogy La Medeleni Ionel Teodoreanu published Lorelei in 1935 His critics challenged the dense figurative style of Lorelei thus it would not enjoy wide dissemination in translation This study of the translation and adaptation of Lorelei argues that creative processes both separately and collectively earn value as primary and generative productions of literary and cinematic text Classical and Modern Literature, 1980 British Writers Classics Jay Parini, 2003 Classics in Film and Fiction Deborah Cartmell, 2000-03-20 Evaluates the term classic discussing a wide range of films and texts including Jane Eyre The Tempest and Alice in Wonderland Publisher and Bookseller, 1880 Vols for 1871 76 1913 14 include an extra number The Christmas bookseller separately paged and not included in the consecutive numbering of the regular series
