Winter's refusal to touch her causes him to almost destroy their fragile relationship when she is attacked by a human male and left for dead behind the bar that she owns. The wolves are still on the loose and when a rogue panther comes forward with information, the pride soon realizes that the male who assaulted Nova is a wolf and will stop at nothing until he kills her. The panthers assemble with a plan ensuring that the pack of wolves are destroyed so that the pride can live in peace. When Nova's ability to protect herself is questioned, Winter has to make the decision to change her into what he is to save her life or leave her vulnerable to his enemies. His reasoning for keeping her human could also be the one thing that takes her life for good when the last remaining wolf returns to finish off the job. The Washington Post Book World. Halvard Starheim, an experienced explorer and Jan's good friend, is determined to find out what went wrong. He is joined by Jan's beautiful widow and a journalist who is hiding his own dangerous secret. Their journey will slowly undercover an international conspiracy and lead to a terrifying showdown in the freezing Arctic winter. Interweaving the stories of these three characters and revealing the complex political tensions in the region where northern Europe meets the USSR, the international bestselling author of Unforgotten and Homeland offers a suspenseful tale of adventure and espionage.
