Threadsun's Green Integer:

Threadsun's Paul Celan, 2005 One of Paul Celan's most important books of poems Threadsun's follows the Green Integer press publication of Breathturn which received international critical acclaim Consisting of 105 poems arranged in five cycles Threadsun's was composed between September 1965 and June 1967 If Breathturn was the opening gambit of Celan's turn the entry into the late work then Threadsun's the volume that may have received the least amount of commentary and analysis to date may be said to be not only an extension or continuation of the previous volume but the full blown realization of Celan's late work

BOOK JACKET Hungarian Perspectives on the Western Canon László Bengi, Gábor Mezei, Ernő Kulcsár Szabó, 2017-05-11 In this collection Hungarian literature is read together with canonical works of the Western literary tradition The book studies the distinction between major and minor literatures showing that such parallel readings may highlight previously unknown components of the literary tradition The book does not hold traditional comparative methods based on verifiable mediations or transactions between national philologies and national literary narratives to be the exclusive standard of interpretation readings can concentrate on common surfaces and textual events instead This is what is meant by post comparative perspectives a term to indicate that the conditions of a comparative reading never precede the reading itself On this basis the present volume points at several possibilities of how a common ground between texts can be created especially because the chapters within it perform parallel readings in highly different ways Afterletters R.

Kolewe, 2014-10-01 Lovers wrote letters Letters crossed absence longing joy passion loss and heartbreak Sometimes letters were answered Sometimes not And sometimes not for years but then In 1948 in the exhausted aftermath of WWII the poets Paul Celan and Ingeborg Bachmann met in Vienna They began a difficult and intense but intermittent relationship which lasted until the early 1960s broken off only when Bachmann could no longer deal with Celan's increasing mental instability And yet despite the break the relationship continued to haunt both of them In Afterletters R Kolewe weaves together fragments of letters and other works of these two poets to give us a stunning sequence of poems that explore the traces of loss and love in language that breaks recombines and scintillates star crossed star covered star thrown Ecstatic Émigré

Claudia Keelan, 2018-01-30 A volume in the Poets on Poetry series which collects critical works by contemporary poets gathering together the articles interviews and book reviews by which they have articulated the poetics of a new generation

Selections Paul Celan, 2005-03-14 Paul Celan is one of the essential poets not just of the twentieth century but of all time Pierre Joris's selections from the remarkable heart shattering work provide what is surely the best one volume introduction to Celan ever published in English Paul Auster No twentieth century poet pierces the heart of language with such an exquisite blade as Paul Celan With Pierre Joris company's translations of key poems poetics letters and exemplary commentary it is as if we are reading Celan for the last time once again Charles Bernstein author of With Strings Joris has dwelled during the better part of his life in Celan's words and silences and as his brilliant introduction demonstrates he has journeyed through the work's intricacies like very few others Michael Palmer author of The Promises of Glass A beautiful and necessary book Celan's charred radiance shines through every page Richard Sieburth translator of Hymns and Fragments

Religious Experience Revisited, 2016-09-07 Religious Experience Revisited explores a dilemma which has haunted the study of religion since William James Is religion rooted in experiences Is religion rooted in expressions How are experiences and expressions related The contributors to this international and interdisciplinary compilation explore the possibilities and the impossibilities of a hermeneutics of religion Combining theology and philosophy with biblical cultural historical and literary studies they examine how religious experiences and religious expressions have been entangled in the past and in the present These entanglements call for interdisciplinary conversations in which those who study experiences and those who study expressions can learn from each other in order to carve out important and instructive spaces for the study of religion

Paul Celan Paul Celan, 2005-03-14 The best introduction to the work of Paul Celan this anthology offers a broad collection of his writing in unsurpassed English translations along with a wealth of commentaries by major writers and philosophers The present selection is based on Celan's own 1968 selected poems though enlarged to include both earlier and later poems as well as two prose works The Meridian Celan's core statement on poetics and the narrative Conversation in the Mountains This volume also includes letters to Celan's wife the artist Gisèle Celan-Lestrange to his friend Erich Einhorn and to René Char and Jean-Paul Sartre all appearing here for the first time in English

Justifying the Margins Pierre Joris, 2009 In this collection of essays poet translator anthologist and critic Pierre Joris extends his nomad poetics to a remarkable zigzagging on the margins of twentieth and twenty-first century poetry and poetics For Justifying the Margins refuses precisely to fill out spaces neatly to yield to straightened-out pre-set margins be they cultural literary linguistic or political Joris rather wanders through those spaces and thereby justifies the margins properly speaking His travel travails set off with absorbing explorations of writing as such traversing languages and crossing genres and seem to turn this collection into a marvelous group improvisation of texts which range from journal entries over lectures essayistic writing auto-biographical notes translation obits and interview to Joris's outstanding and characteristically intense readings The author moreover brilliantly moves across and vindicates multiple fringes Joris's observation with respect to French literature for instance namely that the most interesting and explorative literary writing in French of the last fifty years has not come from Paris but from the periphery of the old colonial empire not only leads him to continually resurfacing meditations on North African and Arabic literature or the rerouted Surrealism of Unica Zürn's anagrams it also allows him to investigate the margins of English and American poetry in Douglas Oliver and Ronald Johnson or even to deftly re-consider core figures such as Antonin Artaud Charles Olson and Paul Celan with in turn new offshoots in Jacques Derrida's pipe or Irving Petlin's paintings A fascinating travelogue and a truly valuable read Justifying the Margins is highly recommended to both the specialist and general reader interested in experimental art thought poetry and poetics

Memory Rose into Threshold Speech Paul Celan, Barbara

Wiedmann, 2020-11-24 Memory Rose into Threshold Speech gathers the poet Paul Celan's first four books written between 1952 and 1963 which established his reputation as the major post World War II German language poet. Celan, a Bukovinian Jew who lived through the Holocaust, created work that displays both great lyric power and an uncanny ability to pinpoint totalitarian cultural and political tendencies. His quest, however, is not only reflective; there is in Celan's writing a profound need and desire to create a new inhabitable world and a new language for it. In Memory Rose into Threshold Speech, Celan's reader witnesses his poetry which starts lush with surrealistic imagery, become gradually pared down; its syntax tightens and his trademark neologisms and word formations increase toward a polysemic language of great accuracy that tries in the poet's own words to measure the area of the given and the possible. Translated by the prize-winning poet and translator Pierre Joris, this bilingual edition follows the 2014 publication of Breathturn into Timestead, Celan's collected later poetry. All nine volumes of Celan's poetry are now available in Joris's carefully crafted translations, accompanied here by a new introduction and extensive commentary. The four volumes in this edition show the flowering of one of the major literary figures of the last century. This volume collects Celan's first four books: Mohn und Gedächtnis, Poppy and Memory, Von Schwelle zu Schwelle, Threshold to Threshold, Sprachgitter, Speechgrille, and Die Niemandrose. Auschwitz and Afterimages Nicholas Chare, 2011-01-27 Execrable speech Fascinating facture Background noise Amidst the nightmare Under the skin Afterimages Rain Taxi Review of Books, 2004 Lichtzwang Paul Celan, 2005 Lightduress was written between June and December 1967 and appeared approximately three months after the poet's suicide in 1970. 1967, the year in which he composed most of this book, had been a difficult year for Celan. He was accused of plagiarism, attempted suicide, was interned in a psychiatric hospital, and also separated from his wife. During this same period, on the other hand, Celan wrote more than half of the poems of Threadsun and a major part of this volume, and in July he lectured at a German university. Translated by noted poet Pierre Joris The Condemned Apple Visar Zhiti, 2005. This bilingual edition presents the poetry of the greatest living Albanian poet. Visar Zhiti lived a life of great privation, locked away in dictator Enver Hoxha's prisons; he was not allowed pencil or paper. He wrote his poems in his mind, and he and other prisoners committed them to memory. Only when Hoxha fell from power and the political prisoners were freed was Zhiti's magnificent poetry brought to print. Now English-speaking readers can share in the remarkably gentle and imaginatively rich poems produced from these years of suffering My Year 2004 Douglas Messerli, 2008. The third volume in Messerli's ongoing cultural memoirs, beginning in the year 2000, considers all things under the skin: readings, events, and memories that have defined him as a person. In his ongoing attempt to write about a life defined by cultural experiences, Messerli delves deep into the cultural events, both popular and literary, he was witness to during his lifetime A Transparent Lion Attila József, 2006. Regarded by many as Hungary's greatest 20th-century poet, József was born in Budapest in 1905 and died after apparently throwing himself under a train in December of 1937. Writing in intense emotional tones that swung between despair and hope Jozsef invigorated old poetic forms with a new freedom orchestrating his poems with fresh rhythmic patterns influenced by folk music's rhythms as well as their metrics But Jozsef was also influenced by Dadaist and other modernist ideas finding a voice that would synthesise the older cultural forms with the newer experiments

Blood of the Quill Azem Shkreli, 2008 The first English language publication of the great Kosovan poet

The Position of Things Adriano Spatola, 2008 One of the most important poets of the Italian neo avant garde Adriano Spatola and his poetic oeuvre have remained relatively obscure in English speaking countries Now 20 years after Spatola's death noted translator Paul Vangelisti has gathered his poetry rethinking and re translating it in a way that highlights this poet's great talent and his aesthetic and political engagement with the world around him

Sebastien, Your Son Claire Deveze, 2006 French writer Claire Deveze details the terrible sufferings of her best friend during the course of the tragic death of her son by cancer The loving distance of friendship allows for an intense description of events which would be impossible to bear perhaps if described by the mother of the dying child As it is the pains and joys of a close group of friends as they live through their friend's painful experiences are expressed beautifully in this loving tribute to the son Sebastien and the possibilities and limitations of friendship

A Moral Lesson Paul Éluard, 2007 Originally published in 1949 A Moral Lesson explores good and evil as slightly unpredictable forces which at times might be perceived as indistinguishable Yet Eluard explores the two with a determined effort to transform evil into good Through our perseverance we will render pain and error harmless This poetic dialogue stands as a magnificent testament to Eluard's poetry and his life
