Time Of Dreaming:

A Social Dreaming Experience at the Time of COVID 19 Elisabetta Pasini, Cinzia Trimboli, 2023-11-07 The book describes the experience of four Social Dreaming Matrices held online between March and May 2020 during the first lockdown caused by the Covid 19 emergency The pandemic isolated us and imposed prolonged contact with ourselves and our solitary thoughts Against this backdrop there was hope for change a desire for a different kind of sociability and different forms of intimacy On the basis of this evidence our research supports the shift from experiencing trauma to reacting to trauma looking at a collective traumatic experience not only as something to be overcome but as an opportunity for a transformation that changes our mental schemes in relation to the external context We have identified Social Dreaming as a privileged technique to overcome a collective traumatic experience supporting its elaboration through collective feelings new connections between intuition and rational thought the discovery of community meanings The authors's thesis is that the much needed transition from magical thinking to transformative thinking takes place in a setting that is able to contain the anxieties of life's transitional phases supporting the creation of new rituals and new social bonds and sustaining the passage from me to a wider we

Dream Life, Wake Life Gordon G. Globus, 1987-01-09 Attempts to understand the human condition through dreaming reach back to antiquity especially in such classical Indian philosophical texts as the Rg Veda and the Upanisads In a more contemporary vein Dream Life Wake Life continues this investigation as it views the dream as an open window on the waking human condition The book discusses the major twentieth century contributions to dream theory beginning with Freud's 1900 psychoanalytical theory of dreaming and continuing through Jung's transpersonal and Boss's existential approaches Recent phenomenological cognitive and biological developments are also considered Dream Life Wake Life addresses human creativity as illuminated by dreaming While Freud held a transformative view of dreaming in which dream life is secondhand formed by combining memory traces of diverse past waking experiences into novel compositions Gordon G Globus sees the process as creative the fundamental creative action inherent in the human condition
