Time Reversal An Autobiography:

Time Reversal, an Autobiography A. Abragam, 1989 Time Reversal is the autobiography of a leading figure in modern physics Anatole Abragam Born in Russia in 1915 he emigrated to Paris at the age of ten where he proved to be a highly gifted pupil But it was not until 1945 when he gained a place in a laboratory in Saclay that his career in physics really began His contributions to the field of nuclear magnetism subsequently won him high distinctions This book is a candid description of the author's life times and colleagues It is replete with anecdotes and pen portraits of his contemporaries not all of which are flattering

Derrida and Autobiography Robert Smith, 1995-06 The work of Jacques Derrida can be seen to reinvent most theories In this book Robert Smith offers both a reading of the philosophy of Derrida and an investigation of current theories of autobiography Smith argues that for Derrida autobiography is not so much subjective self revelation as relation to the other not so much a general condition of thought as a general condition of writing what Derrida calls the autobiography of the writing which mocks any self centred finitude of living and dying In this context and using literary critical philosophical and psychoanalytical sources Smith thinks through Derrida's texts in a new but distinctly Derridean way and finds new perspectives to analyse the work of classical writers including Hegel Nietzsche Kierkegaard Freud and de Man
