

The Timid Pup

Series: Columbia's Color
Rhapsody

Episode# : 66

Year: 1940

Writer(s) : Ben Harrison

This cartoon can be summed up in one word: cute. I thought the puppy and kitten in this cartoon were "squishable" cute, like living beanie babies, of which I still have a collection. During the new year, I have been viewing "Color Rhapsody" cartoons, looking for new favorites, until I found this one.

The story is really a simple one: As the title states, a timid little puppy, despite its father's urging, was unsure of the outside world until he wandered out with a cute little kitten. The kitten's pink bow lets me know that she is a girl. And I'm not sure if the kitten's parent is her mommy or daddy.

I have nothing else to say, but "The Timid Pup," I thought, is a timeless animated gem with its delightful characters, captivating animation, and heartfelt message about self-discovery and the importance of being true to oneself, which I do not mind at all. Also, to be clear, I'm not a bot, and I don't give a damn what people think of these adorable cartoons.
