Underground Man:

The Underground Man Ross Macdonald, 2010-12-01 As a mysterious fire rages through the hills above a privileged town in Southern California Archer tracks a missing child who may be the pawn in a marital struggle or the victim of a bizarre kidnapping What he uncovers amid the ashes is murder and a trail of motives as combustible as gasoline The Underground Man is a detective novel of merciless suspense and tragic depth with an unfaltering insight into the moral ambiguities at the heart of California's version of the American dream If any writer can be said to have inherited the mantle of Dashiell Hammet and Raymond Chandler it was Ross Macdonald Between the late 1940s and his death in 1983 he gave the American crime novel a psychological depth and moral complexity that his predecessors had only hinted at And in the character of Lew Archer Macdonald redefined the private eye as a roving conscience who walks the treacherous frontier between criminal guilt and human sin

Barnhart, 2005 This book illuminates the connectedness of Dostoevsky's literary art with his philosophical and psychological brilliance Two Fyodor Dostoevsky conferences originating at the University of North Texas set the stage for this volume Scholars contributed original papers focusing on how Dostoevsky's literary art and philosophical insights enrich one another Fyodor Dostoevsky wrote and thought polyphonically His polyphonic method is both his special literary technique and his distinctive way of probing theological social and philosophical depths As Bakhtin and Terras suggest all Dostoevsky's major literary inventions from the underground man to the vitriolic Grushenka are products of his ability to listen profoundly to his own characters Like the genius author redactor of 1 and 2 Samuel he reports the heights and depths of human emotion and behavior whether exploring the anatomy of dysfunctional families making the heart soar with Zosima's vision of forgiveness or giving Ivan Karamazov full rein to challenge theism Dostoevsky's characters transform themselves into irregular verbs whose fierce independence emerges only because of their desperate and inescapable interdependence His major characters are text subtext and context for each other They play inside each other's head and answer in one way or another

In Praise of Antiheroes Victor Brombert, 2001-11 In an age of upheaval and challenged faith traditional heroes are hard to come by and harder still to love with their bloodstained hands and backs unbowed by the consequences of their actions Through penetrating readings of key works of modern European literature Victor Brombert shows how a new kind of hero the antihero has arisen to replace the toppled heroic model Though they fail by design to live up to conventional expectations of mythic heroes antiheroes are not necessarily failures They display different kinds of courage more in tune with our time and our needs deficiency translated into strength failure experienced as honesty dignity achieved through humiliation Brombert explores these paradoxes in the works of Balzac Gogol Dostoevsky Flaubert Svevo Hemingway Kafka Camus and Levi Coming from diverse cultural and linguistic traditions these writers all use the figure of the antihero to question handed down assumptions to reexamine moral categories and to raise issues of survival and renewal embodying the spirit of an uneasy age

Against Identity Alexander Douglas, 2025-06-19 A philosopher explains why the search for identity is meaningless and how we should escape the self Modern life encourages us to pursue the perfect identity Whether we aspire to become the best lawyer or charity worker life partner or celebrity influencer we emulate exemplars that exist in the world hoping it will bring us happiness But this often leads to a complex game of envy and pride We achieve these identities but want others to imitate us We disagree with those whose identities contradict ours leading to polarisation and even violence And yet when they thump against us we are ashamed to ring hollow In Against Identity philosopher Alexander Douglas seeks an alternative wisdom Searching the work of three thinkers ancient Chinese philosopher Zhuangzi Dutch Enlightenment thinker Benedict de Spinoza and 20th Century French theorist Ren Girard he explores how identity can be a spiritual violence that leads us away from truth Through their worlds and radically different cultures we discover how at moments of historical rupture our hunger for being grows and yet it is exactly these times when we should make peace with our indeterminacy and discover the freedom of escaping our selves

Dostoevsky Studies, 1980 Underground Man Edward F. Abood, 1973 Dostoevsky's Underground Man in Russian Literature Robert Louis Jackson, 1981 This book analyzes the impact of Dostoevsky's Notes from the Underground 1864 and its protagonist the Underground Man upon Russian literature It is concerned with the different ways in which Russian writers responded to Notes from the Underground with the whole complex of underground psychology philosophy and imagery The basic assumption of this work is that the great impact of Dostoevsky on Russian literature was due not alone to the great power of his art but to the continuing urgency of the problems he posed in his works These problems centering on the relations between the individual and society have lost none of their relevance today not only in Russia but also in the West

Notes from the Underground (Annotated): Notes from the Underground Fyodor Dostoyevsky, 2021-03-13 The Underground Man our first person narrator begins by telling us how hateful and unattractive he is It seems he s been living underground for 20 years unable to act in any way because he s so intelligent he can debunk any justification for doing so Intelligent men he says can never become anything and he himself is the case in point The Underground Man reveals that he is 40 years old and living in St Petersburg Russia He used to be a civil servant but he inherited some money and retired all the more time for discoursing on his life s many problems Despite his surroundings of mire and filth he sometimes experiences attacks of the sublime and beautiful American Beauty style moments where is taken by the awe inspiring things of the world art philosophy love His narration takes the form of a retort he imagines his reader responding to his absurd claims so he fills in our half of the conversation and then responds in turn His first big argument concerns free will and the laws of nature He chooses 2 2 4 to represent all the laws of reason and asks how we can all be free if we have to accept 2 2 4 even if want it to equal five A normal man a man of action will just accept it but he a man of hyper consciousness cannot Next we move to the subject of suffering Suffering the Underground Man argues is enjoyable particularly when you re conscious of it For instance when he knows he s at rock bottom and has no chance of ever getting better he takes pleasure in that Intentional suffering he later explains has a lot to do with free will and the laws of nature that we ve already mentioned The Underground Man considers that we may someday figure out all the laws of nature and then be able to predict what everyone will do think and want Were this to happen he predicts man would just go mad to escape the determinism If you tell man that he will act according to reason that he will always pursue his best interests he will consciously act against that just because he can Man will cause destruction and chaos to prove that he has free will The Underground Man uses this as a reason to reject the idea of a perfect socialist society referred to as Crystal Palace Free will doesn't allow it and besides he would resent a structure which he couldn't deride He also argues that man loves building things not having a finished product We wouldn't be satisfied with perfection because there would be nothing left to do As Part I draws to a close the Underground Man tells us that he will never have readers his audience will always be imaginary We move into Part II which is made up of the Underground Man's reminiscences back to when he was 24 years old Before the flashbacks start however he complains for a while about Romanticism He dislikes silly cloud gazing romantics from France and Germany To him Russian romantics are a very different sort capable of appreciating the sublime and beautiful but still rooted in reality He seems to fancy himself one of these Russian romantics and often indulges in literary fantasies of the sublime and beautiful Now onto his memories The first story concerns an officer who greatly offended our narrator by taking him by the shoulders and moving him out of the way one night in a tavern The horror The Underground Man harbors his spite for years and plots revenge deciding to bump into the officer intentionally while walking along the Nevsky the major central street in St Petersburg The plotting and planning drags on and when the bump finally goes down the Underground Man gets the worst of it as the officer doesn't even notice The next story this is another flashback of the young Underground Man involves a going away dinner for an alpha male named Zverkov whom big surprise the Underground Man hates The Underground man invites himself along to the dinner thrown by several mutual friends and makes The underground man Ross Macdonald,1968
