

Understanding Language

(Ages Two to Three)

Understanding language, also known as 'receptive language', is the ability to understand spoken language and respond to it appropriately. This involves the understanding of words, sentences and questions.

Between the ages of two and three years old, toddlers may:

follow and remember a simple short story with pictures understand and answer simple 'who', 'what' and 'where' questions develop simple language understand simple instructions and actions, such as 'sit on the floor' or 'pick up the toy' play a simple game like hide-and-seek begin to use a simple form like a picture to represent something, such as a teddy bear to represent a bear

For more information on this and other early years topics, visit www.gov.uk/government/organisations/department-for-education
