Introduction

Ethics deals with standards or principles for the systematic evaluation of the rightness or wrongness of human conduct. Conduct here refers to those actions that are freely taken or that are seen to spring from deliberate choices made by free moral agents. What this implies is that ethics presupposes human freedom and moral responsibility. In a similar way, Christianity as a religion also presupposes human freedom and moral responsibility. This is in the sense that if a person acts in a certain way, the praiseworthiness or blameworthiness of such an action is attributable to the person, not to some determinants of behavior that may be remotely related or external to the person. The relationship between Christianity and ethics lies in the fact that Christianity prescribes or commands her devotees to choose some actions instead of others. Such actions which are desirable to Christians form the content of what we call Christian conduct. The consistency of the influence of Christian ideals and values on the moral judgments of her devotees

Lovin,2010-03-01 In this excellent outline of Christian ethics Robin W Lovin achieves a balance between the questions and issues which form the core of the study of ethics and the life situations from which those questions arise Eschewing a sectarian approach which dismisses other understandings of the moral life Lovin nonetheless lays claim to a specifically Christian understanding of ethics He begins with basic Christian convictions about the reality of God and human redemption and weaves these convictions into the fabric of moral concerns that are widely shared in contemporary society He takes note of the problems that arise when Christians try to act on or enforce their convictions in a pluralistic society and recognizes the variety of theological and moral beliefs that are held within the Christian community as well as in the wider society Fundamental Christian Ethics Daniel Heimbach,2022-11-01 In Fundamental Christian Ethics Daniel Heimbach draws from decades of research and scholarship to introduce the field of Christian ethics in a comprehensive manner while showing how it dialogues with modern day ethical topics and issues The Moral Quest Stanley J. Grenz,2000-11-06 Stanley J Grenz masterfully leads readers into a theological engagement with moral inquiry that is a first rate introduction to Christian ethics Exploring Christian Ethics Craig Hovey,2018-04-19 Talking about ethics tends to involve talking about what we should or more often shouldn't do We talk about setting limits on actions that for whatever reason we think are either wrong or somehow harmful to ourselves or others The aim of this book however is to explore Christian ethics within a wider more positive framework one that views Christianity's moral resources as part of the good news that it proclaims to all creation Ethics says Hovey need not be characterized primarily by negative prohibitions limits and tiresome hand wringing Rather it s about a joyful and worshipful way of living which flows naturally out of the abundant goodness God s life and character as revealed in Jesus Contents Introduction Part 1 What Makes Christian Ethics Christian 1 The Bible 2 Following Jesus 3 Some Key Theological Themes Part 2 What Makes Christian Ethics Ethics 4 Classical Roots 5 Modern Options 6 Contemporary Challenges Part 3 The Stuff of Christian Ethics 7 Baptism and Identity 8 Mercy and Peace 9 Justice from Above Order 10 Justice from Below Liberation 11 Sexuality 12 Vulnerable Life 13 Challenges Posed by Science and Technology Christian Ethics and Moral Philosophy Craig A. Boyd, Don Thorsen, 2018-11-06 This introductory textbook presents Christian philosophical and theological approaches to ethics Combining their expertise in philosophy and theology the authors explain the beliefs values and practices of various Christian ethical viewpoints addressing biblical teachings as well as traditional ethical theories that contribute to informed moral decision making Each chapter begins with Words to Watch and includes a relevant case study on a vexing ethical issue such as caring for the environment human sexuality abortion capital punishment war and euthanasia End of chapter reflection questions illustrations and additional information tables are also included Christian Ethics Russell A. Morris, 2015-08-14 Within the Christian community at large there is often little correlation between scriptural guidelines for Christian living and the lifestyle practices and behavior of believers Christian social scientist George Barna has done extensive research in this area that reveals alarming data For example nearly nine of ten adults state that religious faith is very important in their lives However only one in five adults claims that the Bible is the dominant influence in their decisions regarding lifestyle practices Further research suggests that there is often little difference between the lifestyle practices of Christians and non Christians This nominal difference in lifestyle practices and behavior between Christians and non Christians as well as the minimal correlation between Scripture and practice among many Christians produced an interest in this area of practical theology Serving as a Christian pastor over the past two decades the reality of Barnas research has been observed personally The biblical parallel of the prevailing apathy within todays churches is seen in Judges 21 25 NASB In those days there was no king in Israel everyone did what was right in his own eyes That is in those days there was no accepted standard of truth Likewise only one in four American adults believes in the existence of absolute truth As a result the relationship between doctrine and practice belief and behavior is often minimal with many Christians doing only what is right in their own eyes rather than allowing Gods Word to influence their mode of living A distinct relationship between belief and behavior is seen in I Timothy 4 16 In this passage Paul clearly identifies a correlation between what one believes doctrine and the lifestyle behavior one lives when he writes Watch your life and doctrine closely Persevere in them because if you do you will save both yourself and your hearers From this verse it is clear that there are two areas in the life of the Christian that need to be scrutinized and pursued namely belief and behavior The fundamental thesis of this book is that a deeper understanding of

Christian ethics will inform and facilitate the Christian life

Bible and Ethics in the Christian Life Bruce C. Birch, Jacqueline E. Lapsley, Cynthia D. Moe-Lobeda, Larry L. Rasmussen, 2018-05-01 Earth is changing in ways it hasn't for hundreds of thousands of years At the same time Christianity is breaking away from its millennium long geographical and cultural center in the Euro West Its growth is in Asia Africa and Latin America primarily in Pentecostal evangelical and independent churches These dramatically changed planetary and ecclesial landscapes have led many to conclude that we need a new way of thinking about our collective existence who are we and what is the nature of our responsibility in this deeply altered world To address that question biblical scholars Bruce C Birch and Jacqueline E Lapsley and Christian ethicists Larry L Rasmussen and Cynthia Moe Lobeda carry on a new conversation that engages how Christians are to understand the authority and use of Scripture the basic elements of any full bodied Christian ethic attuned to our circumstances and the nature of our responsibility to our planetary neighbors and creation itself

The Poetics of Grace: Christian Ethics as Theodicy Jeph Holloway, 2013-04-09 What is God doing about a world marked by conflict and division What about a world in which our technologies promise great good but also threaten our existence What is God doing in a world where the demands for accumulation and acquisition create division and despair Can Christians hope to be of positive influence in a world that does not always support reflect or even understand Christian commitments Christian ethics often raises such questions as these and the possible answers vary widely Paul s Letter to the Ephesians is a tremendous resource for exploring a faithful response to perhaps the toughest question of all what is God doing about evil The role of Christian ethics is to take seriously the challenge that whatever God is doing God calls us to participate in a distinctive task that embraces our own commitments and labors within the divine purpose Ephesians says that God has taken the initiative to pursue that purpose and remarkably offers that we ourselves are part of the answer to the question what is God doing about evil

Christian Ethics and Contemporary Moral Problems

Michael C. Banner,1999-09-28 This book addresses such key ethical issues as euthanasia the environment biotechnology abortion the family sexual ethics and the distribution of health care resources Michael Banner argues that the task of Christian ethics is to understand the world and humankind in the light of the credal affirmations of the Christian faith and to explicate this understanding in its significance for human action through a critical engagement with the concerns claims and problems of other ethics He illustrates both the distinctiveness of Christian convictions in relation to the above issues and also the critical dialogue with practices based on other convictions which this sense of distinctiveness motivates but does not prevent The book s importance lies in its attempt to show the crucial difference which Christian belief makes to an understanding of these issues whilst at the same time demonstrating some of the weaknesses and confusions of certain popular approaches to them

The Groundwork of Christian Ethics Norman Hamilton Galloway

Robinson,1972 Many theologians as well as many philosophers may be heard today asserting that there neither is nor can be any such thing as a uniquely Christian ethical system On the one hand it is argued that an ethic based on revelation must be inherently static unable to respond to new demands and situations but if the ethical code is little more than a refinement of so called natural law or natural morality then there is no reason to term it Christian In consequence most of the current discussion in the field of ethics addresses itself almost exclusively to a consideration of such specific issues as war sex abortion or mercy killing Professor N H G Robinson however turns his attention to the basic question of what Christian ethics really is Morality Robinson argues was not created by Christianity but exists independently all men are subject to it whatever their belief This fundamental truth about human beings is of profound significance for theology which must continue to insist upon an objective moral code We will never understand Christian ethics Robinson asserts until we accept the doctrine of natural morality But there can hardly be two moralities one natural and the other supernatural each competing for our obedience Rejecting both the medieval and the post Reformation approaches to the relationship of natural and Christian ethics Robinson looks to the redemptive nature of Christian revelation for his answer Moral standards are not merely imposed upon us nor do we invent them we discover them their authority depends on their existing independently of us It is the entry of redemptive revelation into the system of moral philosophy that creates what Robinson describes as natural morality judged reoriented and transformed and brought under the forgiving and reconciling lordship of Christ which constitutes the Christian life Here then is no inflexible static code incapable of responding to change Rather Robinson describes a creative ethic that is objective normative and theocentric a morality always in the making it is a way of life not a closed system Moral rules he overserves are yesterday s moral solutions Teh Groundwork of Christian Ethics is a major contribution to the field of Christian ethics which no serious student can afford to overlook Publisher
