Understanding Democratic Curriculum Leadership:

Understanding Democratic Curriculum Leadership James George Henderson, Kathleen R. Kesson, 1999 This volume integrates critical curriculum theory with best practice extending John Dewey's and Maxine Greene's progressive educational philosophy into the domain of curriculum theory and practice The authors select four significant theoretical topics and then apply this knowledge to the work of practitioners The practice of these educators is examined closely to determine how they engage in reflective practice collaborative decision making and curriculum construction informed by diverse curriculum studies Prominent scholars discuss curriculum deliberation Gail McCutcheon reflexive systems Noel Gough cultural criticism Joe Kincheloe and educational mythopoetics Kathleen Kesson To clarify theoretical points and link these topics to practice the text includes a variety of personal anecdotes illustrations and personal reflections including those of a public school teacher and curriculum leader Kerrin McCadden

Democratic Curriculum Leadership James G. Henderson, Daniel J. Castner, Jennifer L. Schneider, 2018-03-06 This book provides educators with guidance on studying and practicing a curriculum problem solving artistry that is focused on deepening students subject matter understandings through democratic self and social understandings The book begins with a discussion of seven principles of curriculum leadership which provide a framework for the presentation of a theoretical platform that guides a four phased process The curriculum problem solving has four interrelated phases and advice on studying and practicing each phase has been organized into separate chapters using a montage format incorporating inquiry prompts supportive quotations critical commentaries practical tips narrative illustrations and study recommendations There is a continuous recognition of the ways in which the four phases are folded into one another in highly interactive ways hence the problem solving approach is described as a fourfold process The text concludes with an epilogue honoring the disciplined journey of understanding and the pursuit of professional virtues that are central to the cultivation of problem solving artistry An ethical oath that was created by twenty Ohio teacher leaders serves as a collegial pledge to embrace this disciplinary commitment

Transformative Curriculum Leadership James George Henderson, Richard D. Hawthorne, Debra A. Stollenwerk, 2000 Transformative Curriculum Leadership provides concrete guidance on how to practice a curriculum based on problem solving that integrates constructivist learning with democratic understanding The book is organized around the leadership experiences of the assistant superintendent and it contains a wealth of guiding rubrics figures images and illustrations In addition to providing well integrated step by step problem solving guidance it remains a theoretically sophisticated cutting edge integration of curriculum theory and leadership practice

Reuben's Fall Sheri L. Leafgren, 2016-06-16 This study offers a lens on two kindergarten classrooms examining moments of disobedience as children interacted with children their teachers and the space and time elements of the classroom environments Through Eisner's educational criticism author Sherry Leafgren also examines the elements of school kindergarten and teachers within the spaces of their intersections with the children While past research has directed our attention to addressing the problem of classroom disobedience Leafgren provides an opportunity and means to view these familiar actions through fresh lenses of possibilities Predicated by an event in the researcher s teaching life she utilizes Deleuze and Guattari s rhizoanalysis to openly seek lateral paths of understanding by linking and folding the findings with texts other than those that would be normally used toward developing new understandings and questions regarding children s disobediences An earlier version of this book was awarded the distinguished dissertation award from the International Institute for Qualitative Methodology

Finding the Time for Instructional Leadership John C. Leonard,2010-09-16 Finding the Time for Instructional Leadership is centered on the principalship and is designed to offer busy school leaders time management strategies for finding the time to be genuine instructional leaders Leonard provides a set of tactics called keys that will guide readers reflection on the issue of instructional management These seven keys offer principals suggestions for overcoming the daily barrage of secondary responsibilities that redirect valuable time and energy away from academics The keys offered are not in a prioritized must do list nor are they intended to be an all or none approach Principals searching for time solutions are encouraged to consider each of the keys and adopt adapt or reject the suggestion to fit their personal leadership circumstances
