Crisis and Trauma From an Islāmic Perspective Zarina Hassem,Shireen Ismail,Nabeela Vad Walla,G. Hussein Rassool,2025-08-18 Working with Crisis and Trauma from an Isl mic Perspective provides a holistic framework and treatment methods for working with trauma and crises framed within an Isl mic Psychology paradigm This book begins by conceptualising trauma and existing models of understanding treatment and then places trauma and crises within an Isl mic viewpoint The authors focus on the Qur the Sunnah and Isl ic Psychology to rationalise and explain the effects of trauma and how it presents while proposing treatment methods within this context The final chapter uses case studies to illustrate practical applications and includes coping strategies directly from authentic Isl ic sources and the sixth chapter focuses on the legacy of trauma in terms of post raumatic growth This book will be essential reading for professionals in the fields of psychology and mental health looking to understand how Isl ic Psychology practices can be presented as a treatment intervention for patients experiencing trauma and gain insight into how to incorporate these protocols into their own practice

Religion, Spirituality, and Public Health Karen O'Brien-Kop,Suzanne Newcombe,2025-10-14 Religion Spirituality and Public Health focuses on exploring the role of different ways of knowing or arriving at truth i e epistemes particularly those found in religious and alternative health milieus While biomedical solutions offer a dominant narrative these are articulated differently in global contexts Moreover individuals often draw upon alternative framings that are sometimes oppositional to and at other times engaged with directives from medical and governmental authorities The focus of this volume is worldviews and epistemes that are often marginalised or rejected in dominant discourses from shamanism in Korea to African Pentecostalism in Britain and from global online AntiVax narratives to traditional Siddha medicine in South India Detailed case studies explore the contested competing and strategically aligned relationships between mainstream and marginal epistemes between religious healing spirituality and biomedicine and between politics and belief These explorations promote greater insight into how marginalised religious epistemes are employed Which beliefs and practices are drawn upon to create meaningful and effective responses And how can we better understand the depth and breadth of these reactions to design
