Timely Death

William Mack, William Benjamin Hale

Timely Death:

Timely Death Scooter Reaser, 2016-01-12 It is open season on the mega wealthy of America as they are methodically assassinated one by one Samantha Stormy Gail the beautiful thirty something widow of one of the wealthiest men in the United States has already narrowly escaped several attempts on her life Without a clue as to who is trying to kill her she heads to a remote island to seek counsel from Ross Barr a high profile lawyer turned recluse Ross a bachelor who is protective of his past and choices in life divides his time between a home on Elizabeth Isle and a yacht in the Caribbean After he reluctantly agrees to assist Stormy in her quest to determine why she is being targeted they embark on a dangerous journey that takes them through the Caribbean on his yacht and eventually on a plane to a clinic in the Alps where the dead still live and each answer leads to another question But when Stormys past rises up to confront her both she and Ross must pursue the truth within a mad world where insanity and revenge rule In this legal thriller a stunning widow and a reclusive attorney instigate an international pursuit to find those who want her dead and determine why she has become their target

Death and Dying Timothy D Knepper, Lucy Bregman, Mary Gottschalk, 2019-09-02 The medicalization of death is a challenge for all the world s religious and cultural traditions Death s meaning has been reduced to a diagnosis a problem rather than a mystery for humans to ponder How have religious traditions responded What resources do they bring to a discussion of death s contemporary dilemmas This book offers a range of creative and contextual responses from a variety of religious and cultural traditions It features 14 essays from scholars of different religious and philosophical traditions who spoke as part of a recent lecture and dialogue series of Drake University s The Comparison Project The scholars represent ethnologists medical ethicists historians philosophers and theologians all facing up to questions of truth and value in the light of the urgent need to move past a strictly medicalized vision This volume serves as the second publication of The Comparison Project an innovative new approach to the philosophy of religion housed at Drake University The Comparison Project organizes a biennial series of scholar lectures practitioner dialogues and comparative panels about core cross cultural topics in the philosophy of religion The Comparison Project stands apart from traditional theistic approaches to the philosophy of religion in its commitment to religious inclusivity It is the future of the philosophy of religion in a diverse global world

Long Lives and Untimely Deaths Barbara Gerke, 2011-12-23 Longevity and long life practices have been a pan Tibetan concern for a very long time but have hardly been studied by anthropologists This book presents ethnographic accounts and textual material demonstrating how Tibetans in the Darjeeling Hills India view the life span and map out certain life forces in various areas of knowledge These life forces follow daily monthly and annual cycles Divinations and astrological calculations are widely but varyingly used by Tibetans to assess the strength of life forces and forecast difficult periods in their lives Loss exhaustion or periodic weaknesses of life forces are treated medically or through Tibetan Buddhist practices and rituals In all these events temporality and agency are deeply interlinked in the ways in which Tibetans enhance their vitality prolong their
