Underground Heart:

When the "other" is Ourselves Vida Mia Garcia,2009 This dissertation begins with the premise that the founding assumptions undergirding the interdisciplinary field of Tourism Studies have necessarily if not inevitably engendered a set of critical lacunae around race and ethnicity Specifically these assumptions have functioned to circumscribe any racial paradigm in which people of color are anything but the objects of touristic inquiry When the other is ourselves imperial legacies tourist imaginaries and the representation of difference in Chicana o travel writing and cultural production asks what subjectivities are re formed when the supposed Other is doing the touring particularly when that someone encounters what she senses is an exoticized or fetishized reflection of herself Through an examination of Chicana o memoirs visual art and fiction that center Mexican American actual and imagined factual and fictionalized experiences of touristic mobility this study considers new and different questions about identity difference and representation in literary and cultural discourses

Tree of Dreams Laura Resau,2019-03-26 A beating heart A talking tree The rain forest Love Mysticism Harvest And above all chocolate Dear Coco and Leo I miss you We all miss you The whole forest misses you I hear their thanks and wishes in my dreams I hope you do too Prepare for a journey into a world filled with what so many crave the sweet savoring of a chocolate drop A drop that can melt even the most troubled realities But in this nuanced heartrending story before good can emerge there is destruction the bombarding of a people their culture heritage sacred beliefs and the very soul that drives their traditions This urgent beautiful novel takes readers into the ugly realities that surround the destruction of the Amazon rain forest and its people Acclaimed author Laura Resau shows us that love is more powerful than hatred and that by working together hope can be magically restored root and branch
