Three Bells Of Civilization:

Three Bells of Civilization Sydel Silverman, 1975 Fate, Honor, Family and Village Rudolph M. Bell, The Italian peasantry has often been described as tragic backward hopeless downtrodden static and passive In Fate and Honor Family and Village Rudolph Bell argues against this characterization by reconstructing the complete demographic history of four country villages since 1800 He analyzes births marriages and deaths in terms of four concepts that capture more accurately and sympathetically the essence of the Italian peasant s life Fortuna fate onore honor dignity famiglia family and campanilismo village Fortuna is the cultural wellspring of Italian peasant society the worldview from which all social life flows The concept of Fortuna does not refer to philosophical questions predestination or value judgments Rather Fortuna is the sum total of all explanations of outcomes perceived to be beyond human control Thus in Bell s view high mortality does not lead peasants to a resigned acceptance of their fate instead they rely on honor reciprocal exchanges of favors and marriage to forge new links in their familial and social networks With thorough documentation in graphs and tables the author evaluates peasant reactions to time work family space migration and protest to portray rural Italians as active flexible and shrewd participating fully in shaping their destinies Bell asserts that the real problem of the Mezzogiorno is not one of resistance to technology of high birth rates or even of illiteracy It is one of solving technical questions in ways that foster dependency The historical and sociological practice of treating peasant culture as backward secondary and circumscribed only encourages disruption and ultimately blocks the road to economic and political justice in a post modern world Visits Home Loretta Baldassar, 2001 Collection of autobiographical interviews relating the migrant experience Over 200 residents of a village in north eastern Italy emigrated to Perth between 1900 and 1997 Related are stories of visits home to Italy Their stories have the themes of homesickness farewells and reunions Explores the sense of homelessness experienced and looks at the relationships between immigrants and their homelands and between place and identity Concludes that visits home are central to the identity of immigrants and their children Appendices provide migration charts genealogies and data on visits Includes glossary notes bibliography and index Author is Professor in the Department of Anthropology at the University of Western Australia Catalogue of the Library of the Peabody Institute of the City of Baltimore ... dedication to spiritual conversions and cultural transformation arose from a shared commitment to nonsectarian Christian cooperation and practicing Christian citizenship Bringing together a diverse coalition of liberal Protestants revivalists evangelicals and secular reformers Practical Christians rejected theological divisions in favor of broad alliances committed to improving society at home and abroad A complete understanding of the intimate relationship between local and global activism provides new insight into Practical Christians social networks political goals religious identities and international outlook This broad reform alliance considered their domestic and global reforms as seamless tasks in modernizing the world Just as Chicago Practical Christians labored to civilize their immigrant neighbors and encourage their adoption of their own Christian and American habits like minded Americans worked to Christianize and modernize Armenians and the Middle East The Practical Christian coalition faltered post World War I as evangelicals and revivalists continued to prioritize spiritual conversions while liberal Protestant and secularizing activists placed more emphasis on the process of Americanizing immigrants and the world
