The World Beyond Europe in the Romance Epics of Boiardo and Ariosto Jo Ann Cavallo, 2013-10-28 This study offers a sustained examination of the presentation of eastern Asia the Middle East and northern Africa in two of the most important chivalric epics of the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries Matteo Maria Boiardo s Orlando Innamorato 1495 and Ludovico Ariosto s Orlando Furioso 1516 Comparing the narratological strategies used to depict non European characters in these stories Jo Ann Cavallo argues that Boiardo s cosmopolitan vision of humankind increasingly became replaced by Ariosto s crusading ideology which emphasized a binary opposition between Christians and Saracens Cavallo addresses the poems mixing of imaginary sites and the geographical reality of a rapidly expanding globe contextualizing them against current events and concerns as well as ancient medieval and Renaissance texts influential at the time As the prize committee for the Scaglione Publication Award for a Manuscript in Italian Literary Studies noted This articulate engaging and well documented study represents an important work of scholarship in its cross cultural considerations of Italian Renaissance epic poetry
