

A photograph of a dirt road winding through a field of tall grass. On the left side of the road, there is a fence made of wooden posts and wire. The sky is filled with soft, orange and pink clouds, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. A large, semi-transparent text box is overlaid on the upper half of the image, containing a quote. Below the quote, there is a smaller red box with the author's name. At the bottom center, there is a small logo for 'quodians' with a magnifying glass icon.

Two roads diverged in a wood and I
– I took the one less traveled by,
and that has made all the difference.

Taking The Road Less Traveled Barry Allen Rosenfeld,2008-11-21 A young man barely starting out in life is faced with a choice Marry the beguiling young widow he has just met in an Israeli kibbutz and become the father of her three children or return single to his empty life as a rabbinical student studying to be a Reform rabbi Although doubting the existence of God he believes that God is guiding him and he marries the young woman Thus begins his trip down the road less traveled that will take him back to the States where he experiences the psychedelic 60s back to Israel where he covers a very hot war while working for NBC television and on to Belize where he becomes a gentleman planter and developer of thousands of acres of bananas and citrus only to return once again to the States where he confronts a decision that will change his life forever
