The Female Body Ingrid Moeslein-Teising, Frances Thomson-Salo, 2018-04-19 This book gathers together a number of cutting edge contributions about the female body inside and out from a large group of psychoanalysts who are at the forefront of new thinking about issues of femininity the female body sex and gender It explores the female body in art in pregnancy and motherhood in sexuality and in the lifecycle and finally the female body as scene of crime As a result this book covers aspects of female creativity in its many aspects both productive and generative and where there are difficulties or impediments The psychoanalysts writing for this book have made an enormous contribution in the past and this book therefore aims to stimulate challenge and provoke further discussion and new advances in this field Psychoanalysis, Monotheism and

Morality Wolfgang Müller-Funk, Inge Scholz-Strasser, Herman Westerink, Daniela Finzi, 2013 In this volume renowned experts in psychoanalysis reflect on the relationship between psychoanalysis and religion in particular presenting various controversial interpretations of the question if and to what extent monotheism semantically and structurally fits psychoanalytic insights Some essays augment traditional religious critiques of Freudianism with later religious philosophical theories on for example femininity Others explore the relation between psychopathology and morality from the Freudian premise that psychopathology shows in an excessive way aspects or mechanisms of the human psyche that constitute our subjectivity moral capacities and behavior Contributors Andreas De Block KU Leuven University of Leuven Fethi Benslama University of Paris Diderot Sergio Benvenuto ISTC Rome Gohar Homayounpour Shahid Beheshti University Tehran Felix de Mendelssohn Sigmund Freud University Vienna Julia Kristeva University of Paris Diderot Lode Lauwaert KU Leuven University of Leuven Siamak Movahedi University of Massachusetts Wolfgang Muller Funk University of Vienna Gilles Ribault University of Paris Diderot Celine Surprenant University of Sussex Inge Scholz Strasser Sigmund Freud Foundation Herman Westerink University of Vienna Joel Whitebook Columbia University Moshe Zuckermann Tel Aviv University

Seduction and Desire Ilka Quindeau, 2018-03-08 Modern society has introduced many new relationships and family forms and the pluralisation of sexual lifestyles in the hundred years since Freud This book provides a systematic account of the current state of theory developing a gender wide model of human sexuality and outlining the implications of this for psychotherapy practice The author argues that the development of human sexuality follows no innate biological programs but takes place in an interpersonal relationship often established in the early parent child relationship Whereas the current psychoanalytic discourse emanates from a rather rigid division of gender relations emphasizing the differences between men and women the author develops a gender wide model of human sexuality in which the masculine and feminine are integrated and contribute to the full diversity of gender identities and sexual varieties She points to structural similarities of hetero and homosexuality and perversion and calls for a general human sexuality that is based less on differences between men and women than with each other

Women and Creativity Frances Thomson-Salo, Laura Tognoli Pasquali, 2018-05-08 This book addresses aspects of how creativity is viewed in psychoanalytic theory and worked with in the consulting room with particular reference to human generativity and the life cycle within the arts in the broadest sense and its workings in society and culture in the widest sense

Mothers and Daughters II Rosemary H. Balsam, Ruth S. Fischer, 2014-06-03 This is the second issue of Psychoanalytic Inquiry devoted to mothers and daughters This project began as the mother daughter bond was calling out for attention in light of the many advances in our understanding of female psychology The goal of female development is no longer considered to be a severing of the mother daughter bond to attain autonomy and sexual maturity What then are its vicissitudes as it is revisited reworked and transformed as the girl and her mother grow and develop and ultimately attain a state of interdependence The relational context of development is now considered gender related differences in behavior and in parental interaction and the girl's special relationship with her mother and her mother's body and the importance to her of her own body with its special attributes contours and sensations

Myths of Mighty Women Arlene Kramer Richards, Lucille Spira, 2018-05-08 Women whose mothers were not called upon to achieve in a man's world have a difficult time seeing themselves as powerful enough to do that Identifying with mighty women of the past and of the present culture can help them to permit themselves to achieve more than their mothers did This book provides several such myths from ancient and modern cultures from both Western and Eastern traditions each of which is a standard for a particular aspect of female power and all of which can provide that power for women now Among the aspects of women's power are Super Girl Warrior Woman Evil Temptress Protective Mother and Provider This book is useful for therapists to read themselves and or to give to their patients when they suffer from fantasies of the bad mother who does not want to be surpassed or the weak mother who cannot protect or the therapist who wants to keep the woman patient in a weak and needy position

Women Making Art Deborah J. Johnson, Wendy Oliver, 2001 Women Making Art engages with contemporary feminist thinking on history subjectivity and aesthetics to rework those conventions which have occluded women's cultural agency and defined art made by women as a derivative version of a masculine norm Rather than providing an inclusive survey of women artists Marsha Meskimmon examines women's art practice across five continents and in a wide range of media at a number of key moments in the twentieth century to give an understanding of the intersections of history and culture art practice and theoretical issues Examining the ways in which women artists have reclaimed expressed and defined personal and political histories challenged conventional western notions of dichotomous sexed subjectivity and opened out the relationships of pleasure knowledge word flesh and space time to new ways of thinking against the grain Meskimmon discusses the work of artists such as Deborah Lefkowitz Trinh T Minh ha Cornelia Parker Faith Ringgold Mona Hatoum and Maria Helena Vieira da Silva as well as other less well known artists from around the world Focusing on historical theoretical and aesthetic moments in the twentieth century such as the Holocaust the Vietnam War the African diaspora Queer Theory and cyberculture Meskimmon illustrates the importance of women artists in rethinking dominant traditions and assumptions at times of cultural political and technological change The Homestead, 1928

Between Warrior Brother and Veiled Sister Minoo Moallem, 2005 This is a stunning and original book It will intervene in existing fields and discourses to change the way Islamic fundamentalism is viewed in the West Caren Kaplan Associate Professor of Women and Gender Studies and Chair of Cultural Studies at the University of California Davis Between Warrior Brother and Veiled Sister is an original and venturesome piece of work It is daring in its willingness to test just how far the definition of fundamentalism might be extended in contemporary Iran It sketches lucidly the gendered crises of identity that have emerged there in the wake of colonization Europeanization and decolonization Parama Roy Associate Professor of English at UC Riverside author of Indian Traffic Identities in Question in Colonial and Postcolonial India Between Warrior Brother and Veiled Sister is ground breaking enlightening and challenges mainstream constructions of Islam as fanatic and backward This book will similarly contribute to the writings on race and gender relations religion and secularism cultural nationalism religious fundamentalism and popular culture and visual media The personal biographical and visual examples are effective in making the more nuanced and complex theoretical arguments tangible and provocative Exciting and innovative Ella Shohat Professor of Cultural Studies New York University Veiled Fantasies Meyda Yegenoglu Mutman, 1993 Veiled Desire Kim Power, 1996 The author discusses Augustine's views on women particularly women within Christian theology The author also addresses how Augustine's views were based on his cultural and psychological circumstances and how his ideas on and attitudes towards women changed Veils and Videos Minou Fuglesang, 1994

Veil Fadwa El Guindi, 1999-08 This book overturns Western notions of the veil as a symbol of women's oppression in Islamic societies The author reveals how the veil which has enjoyed a resurgence in popularity since the 1970s de marginalizes women in society and is an expression of liberation from colonial legacies as well as a symbol of resistance She also shows how the veil has multiple and nuanced meanings which extend far beyond the narrow view that it is merely a special form of women's clothing Negotiating Urban Conflicts Helmuth Berking, 2006 Cities have always been arenas of social and symbolic conflict As places of encounter between different classes ethnic groups and lifestyles cities play the role of powerful integrators yet on the other hand urban contexts are the ideal setting for marginalization and violence The struggle over control of urban spaces is an ambivalent mode of sociation while producing themselves groups produce exclusive spaces and then in turn use the boundaries they have created to define themselves This volume presents major urban conflicts and analyzes modes of negotiation against the theoretical background of postcolonialism
