hatred alone does not necessarily start wars but how leaders cultivate it to mobilize their people He also reveals the thinking behind the preemptive strikes that contribute to much of the violence between groups identifies the dangers of particularist communitarianism and argues for government structures to prevent any ethnic or other group from having too much sway Exploring conflict between groups such as Serbs and Croats Hutu and Tutsi Northern Irish Catholics and Protestants Hardin vividly illustrates the danger that arises when individual and group interests merge In these examples groups of people have been governed by movements that managed to reflect their members personal interests mainly by striving for political and economic advances at the expense of other groups and by closing themselves off from society at large The author concludes that we make a better and safer world if we design our social institutions to facilitate individual efforts to achieve personal goals than if we concentrate on the ethnic political makeup of our respective societies New York Education ,1900 The Encyclopædia Britannica Hugh Chisholm,1910
