A Study of the Beginnings of Creative Writing in Two First Grades Lillian Scott Wilson,1950

Thinking Creative Writing Graeme Harper,2020-06-29 Thinking Creative Writing explores the many ways in which creative writing can be critically considered and understood as well as the teaching and learning of creative writing Featuring thematic ideas and practice orientated thoughts such as those related to the value of distraction when undertaking creative work the book also presents contemporary work in the field of what is termed Creative Writing Studies and offers an analysis of doctoral research on Creative Writing Additionally the book includes reports on cultural and heritage studies of creative writing as a practice in relation to the literature it brings about and the audiences it engages Thinking Creative Writing presents a snapshot of contemporary work in and around departments of creative writing in our universities and colleges It will be of interest to those researching in the field as well as those with a broader interest in writing creatively The chapters in this book were originally published as articles in the New Writing journal

Craft Consciousness and Artistic Practice in Creative Writing Ben Ristow,2022-02-10 Craft lives inside the artist and it operates in the mind not in standards or techniques Creative writers navigate thresholds in consciousness as they develop their arts practice Craft Consciousness and Artistic Practice in Creative Writing explores what it is to be an artist as it traces radical feminist and culturally embedded traditions in craft The new term craft consciousness identifies the nexus from which writers explore making processes and practitioner knowledge Writers as with all artists create and reimagine themselves anew and it is in this perpetual state of becoming that they find ways to enlarge their sense of artistry through an exploration of forms processes and mediums beyond the written word For writers this book initiates a reexamination of the mission of creative writing through disrupting patriarchal racist colonialist ableist and capitalist associations with dominant craft Drawing from twenty five interviews with living artists outside of writing and in a host of fields from conceptual art to leatherwork and dance the book shines a light on how the processes associated with craft are embodied Craft is an internalized matrix it need not be commodified for the marketplace or codified in the standards necessitated by institutions of higher education. By redesigning writing workshops and MFA/PhD programs through craft consciousness, new potentials and collaborations emerge, and it becomes more conceivable to imagine dynamic, inclusive relationships between writers, scientists, and other artists.

Teaching Creative Writing in Asia Darryl Whetter, 2021-08-26. This book examines the dynamic landscape of creative education in Asia, exploring the intersection of post-coloniality, translation, and creative education in one of the world's most relevant testing grounds for STEM versus STEAM educational debates. Several essays attend to one of today's most pressing issues in Creative Writing education and education generally: the convergence of the former educational revolution of Creative Writing in the anglophone world with a defining aspect of the 21st century: the shift from monolingual to multilingual writers and learners. The essays look at examples from across Asia with specific experience from India, Singapore, China, Hong Kong, the Philippines, and Taiwan. Each of the 14 writer-professor contributors has taught Creative Writing substantially in Asia, often creating and directing the first university Creative Writing programs there. This book will be of interest to anyone following global trends within creative writing and those with an interest in education and multilingualism in Asia.

Creative writing as a method for promoting writing competence Hanna Cieslak, 2022-01-10. Seminar paper from the year 2008 in the subject Didactics - Common Didactics - Educational Objectives - Methods - grade 1-3. Ruhr University of Bochum. Language: English. Abstract: Reading and writing are central key competences of everyday life in society. Without the corresponding skills, it is becoming increasingly difficult to participate in life in our literate society. Teaching writing skills to pupils in short SuS is thus a fundamental task of school education and upbringing. Based on these findings, this thesis attempts to show to what extent creative writing methods can promote writing among students. In the first chapter, the field of writing itself is explained in more detail. In this context, the first step is to show theoretically what is meant by the term writing process. Then, the area of writing strategies is discussed. The focus of this chapter is on writing competence, which entails a definition of this term and explains the different levels of competence. However, writing competences are not only closely related to the writing process and writing strategies but also to writing development. In this context, BECKER and MROTZEK-BITTCHEER have tried to divide the process of writing development into different levels of development, which are presented in conclusion. The second chapter deals with the field of creative writing. After defining the term creative writing and explaining the aims of using this method, the six method groups of creative writing are presented based on BITTCHEER. Finally, this chapter is dedicated to the question of whether creative writing actually promotes the students' writing competence. In this context, an attempt is made to analyse, on the basis of selected student essays, whether these contain, for example, certain text patterns, lexical or grammatical knowledge, which are components of writing competence and can be further developed through creative writing occasions.
