Report of Committee on Modern Languages United States. Office of Education. Committee on Modern Languages, 1899 Interaction and Cognition in Linguistics Carlos Inchaurralde, Celia Florén, 2003 The present book is a collection of selected papers held at the 11th Susanne H bner Seminar from the 26th of February to the 1st of March 2001 in Zaragoza Spain The papers included in this volume address several issues connected with the relationship between what seems to be external and internal in human language usage By external is meant here communication and more concretely interaction by internal processing and conceptualization that is to say cognition These two sides coincide with the subject matter of two of the most active paradigms of linguistic research nowadays pragmatics and cognitive linguistics and the two main sections of this volume reflect two possible entry points to this dichotomy The first section Interacting clearly puts the emphasis on interaction itself whereas the second section The system behind is concerned with metaphor metonymy and categorization processes

American Book Publishing Record ,1985 The Practical Study of Languages Henry Sweet,1900 Cultural Conceptualisations in West African English Frank Polzenhagen,2007

This book is an application of the cognitive linguistic framework to the study of the New Englishes specifically West African English Its theoretical part provides an outline of the analytical tools in particular conceptual metaphor metonymy and cultural model theory Using corpus linguistic methods and incorporating research from neighbouring social sciences the empirical part explores culture specific conceptualisations and their linguistic expression in the variety under analysis The findings attest to the cultural contextualisation of the English language in the West African setting The last part of the book critically discusses the current debate on the role and spread of English as a global language from a cognitive linguistic and discourse analytical perspective

Faith and Fiction Benjamin Biebuyck,René Dirven,John Ries,1998 Faith and Fiction is a collection of essays which partly stems from the 25th LAUD Symposium on Metaphor and Religion University of Duisburg April 1 5 1997 It investigates the relationship between religious experience and the use of metaphors and thus explores the tensions between faith and fiction Herein special attention is paid to the type of situation in which the confrontation of a community or an individual with religion is not self evident or even discordant In order to address the diversity of the problem area the volume opts for an interdisciplinary approach Section I analyses religious metaphors from the viewpoint of contemporary linguistics In section II the significance of metaphors in a meta religious discourse is considered The philosophical dialogue with religion and metaphor is discussed in section III and the final section submits religious poems to a formal and interpretative examination
