Visions Level A Assessment Program:

Business as Usual: An Assessment of Donald Rumsfeld's Transformation Vision and Transformation's Prospects for the Future Mark G. Czelusta, 2010-11 Donald Rumsfeld's vision of a transformed U S military has been discussed by many and understood by few and this lack of understanding has resulted in both significant simplifications and sweeping generalizations If Rumsfeld's Transformation is indeed dead does this mean that Transformation as a greater process is dead as well This report discusses the answers to this question which requires one to understand first that Rumsfeld's Transformation Vision RTV is the result of multiple influences that predate his time in office Second RTV is actually an umbrella term for 3 different things a new way of war a process and a defense strategy And third the military services shaped and at times limited the effectiveness of his program Illus argue that black social capital doesn't necessarily translate into the kind of intergroup coalition needed to bring about school reform. He also includes an extensive historical survey of the black community showing how distrust engendered by past black experiences has hampered the formation of significant intergroup social capital. The book features case studies of school reform activity including the first analysis of the politics surrounding Baltimore's decision to hire a private for-profit firm to operate nine of its public schools. These cases illuminate the paradoxical aspects of black social capital in citywide school reform while offering critical perspectives on current debates about privatization, site-based management, and other reform alternatives. Orr's book challenges those who argue that social capital alone can solve fundamentally political problems by purely social means and questions the efficacy of either privatization or black community power to reform urban schools. Black Social Capital offers a cogent conceptual synthesis of social capital theory and urban regime theory that demonstrates the importance of government politics and leadership in converting social capital into a resource that can be mobilized for effective social change.
