Pre-Writing Pattern Boards

Introduction

1. Think of your last pre-writing pattern board that you liked in a game of catch. They can be any shape or colour. Write what you think they look like.

Try to draw the object again from a single outline in this and two other places on the board. You can use any shape for the object and colour for the drawing. Use your imagination.

Alternatively, use the example on the left. View Full Drawing Pattern Board

2. For all your new patterns, use drawing only and drawings. Think of what you can draw and what you can't. You can use your imagination.

3. Drawing objects in a single colour. Use the same pattern and colour for all the lines.

They will look different from the original, but they will be the same.
