Socially Responsible Investment Law Benjamin J Richardson, 2008-06-30 Environmental harm is commonly associated with companies that extract, consume and pollute our shared natural resources. Rarely are the unseen polluters, the financiers that sponsor and profit from eco-damaging corporations, placed at the forefront of the environmental debate. By focusing on these unseen polluters, Benjamin Richardson provides a comprehensive examination of socially responsible investment (SRI) and offers a guide to possible reform. Richardson proposes that greater regulatory supervision of SRI will help ensure that the financial sector prioritizes ethically based investments. In Socially Responsible Investment Law, he suggests that new governmental reforms should encourage companies to participate in socially responsible investments by providing a better mix of standards and incentives for SRI through measures that include redefining the fiduciary responsibilities of institutional investors to incorporate environmental concerns. By doing so, Richardson posits that corporate financiers, including banks, hedge funds, and pension plans, will become more accountable to the goals of ensuring sustainable development.

Portfolio Theory and Management H. Kent Baker, Greg Filbeck, 2013-01-07 Portfolio Theory and Management examines the foundations of portfolio management with the contributions of financial pioneers up to the latest trends. It takes a global focus by highlighting cross-country differences and practices. Challenges and Opportunities for Agricultural Intensification of the Humid Highland Systems of Sub-Saharan Africa Bernard Vanlauwe, Piet van Asten, Guy Blomme, 2014-10-07 The humid highlands in sub-Saharan Africa (SSA) are characterized by high population densities and require intensification. The Consortium for Improving Agriculture-based Livelihoods in Central Africa (CIALCA) has set up a research-for-development platform in various mandate areas in DR Congo, Burundi, and Rwanda, aiming to identify improved production, market, and nutrition options and facilitating the access for development partners to these options. This platform is supported by capacity building, multi-stakeholder dialogue, and monitoring and evaluation efforts. The conference facilitated by CIALCA aimed to: i) take stock of the state of the art in agricultural intensification in the highlands of SSA and ii) chart the way forward for agricultural research for development in the humid highlands of SSA and more specifically in the recently launched Humidtropics Consortium Research Programme through keynote, oral, and poster presentations and strategic panel discussions. Sri Sarwarthachintamani Venkatesā (Daivajña.), 1922 Sanskrit work on Hindu astrology translated into English. California.
