Reconceptualizing Development in the Global Information Age Manuel Castells,Pekka Himanen,2014-08-29 The conditions in which development the process by which people individually and collectively enhance their capacities to improve their lives according to their values and interests operates have significantly changed in the global information age a period characterized by the technological revolution in information and communication the rise of the networking form of social organization and the global interdependence of economies and societies This volume aims to redefine the means and goals of development in this new context first by characterizing the specific mode of development informational development that the authors consider to be the driver of the creation of material wealth in the twenty first century secondly by reconceptualizing human development as the fulfilment of human wellbeing in the multidimensionality of the human experience ultimately affirming dignity as the supreme value of development thirdly by examining the relationship between informational development and human development After first setting out its analytical framework the book brings together a diverse set of empirically rich case studies to illustrate this investigation from across the globe Silicon Valley Costa Rica Chile South Africa Finland the European Union and China and concludes by attempting to reconceptualize development It raises important questions and provides observations including examining the concept of dignity as development to contribute to a policy debate that should provide specific answers linked to the conditions of each society and be enacted by democratic institutions in a concerted global effort to save humankind while there is still time Income Stabilization for a Developing Democracy Max F. Millikan,1953 Reforming China's Public Finances Mr.Ehtisham Ahmad,Mr.Vito Tanzi,Qiang Gao,1995-09-08 The reform of fiscal relations between different levels of geovernment is crucial to the success of China's current structural transformation to a socialist market economy. The reform will profoundly affect macroeconomic stability, growth prospects, and the effectiveness of providing public services and interregional equity. In order to review international experience and to clearly identify the policy options for China in the short to medium term, a conference was held in Shanghai in October 1993. The papers in this volume, edited by Ehtisham Ahmad, Gao Qiang, and Vito Tanzi, include those presented at the conference and a few that supplement it.

China's Financial Stability: Inherent Logic And Basic Framework Dexu He, 2016-09-29

Triggered by the US subprime mortgage crisis in 2007, the Financial Tsunami is the most serious global financial crisis since the Great Depression. This book studies financial stability in terms of its determining factors, causal mechanisms, and institutional requirements. It aims at understanding how to construct a mechanism for maintaining long-term financial stability. The book focuses on economic analysis of the understanding what China can and should do to safeguard its economic and financial stability. In its assessment and discussion of financial stability in China, this book takes full account of China's specific conditions and constructs an index system for the country. It also reflects on the country's monetary policy, government functions, and behavior fluctuations in real estate prices and financial security network design. The book contributes to better understanding of financial stability in transition economies. It proposes a systematic solution to financial instability in China and strategies for building a mechanism to maintain financial stability in the country.

Proposed Statewide Resource Management Plan Amendment/final Environmental Impact Statement United States. Bureau of Land Management. New Mexico State Office, 2000. Documents the effects of adopting standards for public land health and guidelines for livestock grazing management on Bureau of Land Management (BLM) administered land in New Mexico. The standards and guidelines would be incorporated into eight BLM resources management plans (RMP) that cover approximately 13.5 million acres. In addition, for each alternative, there are existing land use decisions that are in conformance with the standards. These decisions would be changed to bring them into conformance. Page xiii.
