themselves and with correctional officers Routledge Revivals: Varieties of Residential Experience (1975) Jack Tizard, Ian Sinclair, R. V. G. Clarke, 2017-07-05 First published in 1975 this book compiles a number of studies concerning institutional care and children which address the question of why institutions that serve apparently similar functions differ so much The book uses comparative methods such as measurement of different dimensions of institutional care and analysis of interrelationships among specific structural and functional features which characterise particular institutions As a result the book draws broad conclusions about the importance of factors that have dynamic influence on the manner in which institutions function and the reasons why they differ The editors reject the steampress model which postulates that institutions are more or less alike They discuss ideological and organisational variation differences in staffing and the manner in which children respond to them and consider these issues as factors that influence the way in which an institution functions as a whole Subsequent chapters describe comparative studies carried out in institutions for the mentally handicapped approved schools residential nurseries probation hostels other correctional institutions and units for autistic children The book enables the reader to appreciate achievements and shortcomings of contemporary research and thinking in this field Education after October 7 Matt Reingold, 2026-02-24 Education after October 7 Essays about Teaching and Learning in the Jewish Diaspora is the first book dedicated to exploring how the October 7 2023 terror attacks affected teaching and learning about Israel in the Jewish diaspora The first three sections of the edited volume bring together quantitative qualitative and ethnographic research conducted at schools and camps by scholars from a diverse set of disciplines These studies consider the perspectives and experiences of learners parents teachers North American and Israeli and camp directors and counsellors to reveal how terror and war necessitated changes in teaching and learning The concluding section of the volume contains three chapters that offer educational models that chart new directions for the future of Jewish and Israel education America's Child Care Problem Barbara R. Bergmann, Suzanne Wiggins Helburn, Suzanne Wiggins Helburn, 2003-05-30 The revolution in women's lives has created an unprecedented demand for non parental child care and sparked a growing child care industry run by both public and private providers In this book two esteemed economists examine the causes and potential cures of the child care problems that face this country today Writing for policymakers parents and providers alike Suzanne W Helburn and Barbara R Bergmann provide the first in depth look at the child care industry identifying crucial problems such as quality of care and the high cost of even mediocre care Moreover the authors identify sources for change including stronger regulatory procedures on providers and suppliers of care and more government subsidies America's Child Care Problem examines the views of key players in all facets of the child care industry CEOs politicians policy advocates foundation directors child care providers and parents and offers specific advice and guidelines for parents to use when selecting care The book helps parents understand the hidden costs of child care the pros and cons of child care centers versus care by nannies relatives and family run centers and danger signals that indicate a low quality of child care Persistent Young Offenders David Loble, David Smith, 2016-05-13 Based on some of the most interesting research of the last ten years this book discusses effective practice in work with persistent young offenders It contrasts two major evaluations of projects for juvenile offenders one of which was successful and the other less so The projects Freagarrach and CueTen were funded by The Scottish Office and the Scottish Executive Freagarrach was evaluated over five years from 1995 and CueTen over three years its entire lifespan from 1996 This book makes the findings of these projects available to a wider readership setting them in a wider discursive framework than is appropriate in a government report The authors identify the factors that made Freagarrach a more successful project than CueTen arguing that an understanding of these factors is important in drawing general conclusions from the experience of the two projects and that this is particularly the case because some of these factors have received little attention in recent discussions of what works in community based programmes for offenders This is a detailed and thorough study of work with juvenile offenders which will be of particular value to those interested in less punitive approaches It will be of interest both to practitioners and to academics in criminology social policy and social work OE Communique ,1981 Army Organizational Effectiveness Journal ,1981 Ageing, Sex and Disability Ricardo Iacub, Paul Simpson, Trish Hafford-Letchfield, 2026-03-31 What if we reimagined ageing illness and disability not as barriers to sexuality but as starting points for new forms of desire intimacy and pleasure This groundbreaking book challenges the silence and stigma surrounding the sexuality of older ill and disabled people Drawing from sociology health studies cultural theory and lived experience the authors explore diverse expressions of sexuality that defy long established views From queer ageing to sex work and legal rights this collection offers bold inclusive perspectives and policy ideas that centre pleasure agency and dignity A vital resource for academics practitioners and anyone invested in social inclusion and justice John Hay William Roscoe Thayer, 1915 Electrical Merchandising ,1922 Booksellers, Stationers and Fancy Goods Journal of Australia and New Zealand ,1930 Abraham Lincoln John George Nicolay, John Hay, 1890 Scribner's Popular History of the United States William Cullen Bryant, Sydney Howard Gay, Noah Brooks, 1896 Address of the Trustees Perkins School for the Blind, 1930 Reports for 1886 87 1905 06 include Report of the Kindergarten for the Blind covering the same period Annual Report of Perkins Institution and Massachusetts School for the Blind Perkins Institution and Massachusetts School for the Blind, 1930 Life ,1899 Canadian Grocer ,1924 Publications of the American Association of Museums ,1928 Press On!
