Textual Practice 11:

Textual Practice, 1997 Textual Practice Various, 1997-03-13 In this issue some of the most influential critics in the field encounter their colleagues in debate A sad tale s best for South Africa Martin Orkin Shakespeare and Hanekom King Lear and land Nicholas Visser Questioning Robert Young s post colonial criticism Laura Chrisman Response to Laura Chrisman Robert Young Making love to our employment or the immateriality of arguments about the materiality of the Shakespearean text Edward Pechter Lover among the ruins response to Pechter Margreta de Grazia and Peter Stallybrass Busy doing nothing a response to Edward Pechter Graham Holderness Bryan Loughrey and Andrew Murphey Is she fact or is she fiction Angela Carter and the enigma of woman Anne Fernihough The new romanticism philosophical stand ins in English Romantic discourse Paul Hamilton Textual Practice Jean Howard, Alan Sinfield, Lindsay Smith, 1997-07-10 In this volume Textual Practice brings together some of its most pressing concerns by exploring the interaction of texts with language politics gender and history Textual Practice has a theoretical approach that crosses over into a range of other apparently disparate disciplines philosophy history law medicine science architechtrure gender and media studies Key Features Features the most exciting new voices and the most influential new scholars in the field Multidisciplinary Includes two articles on Ireland _ _ _ Violence, Scripture, and Textual Practice in Early Judaism and Christianity Ra'anan S. Boustan, Alex P. Jassen, Calvin J. Roetzel, 2009-10-26 This volume analyzes the various and overlapping discourses of religious violence that emerged within Jewish and Christian culture in the Roman world Toward this end the nine papers collected here address both the presence of violence within the authoritative scriptural traditions of early Judaism and Christianity and the redeployment of these older traditions to represent legitimate and indeed sacralize violence Individual papers focus on the specific social and historical contexts from which these texts emerged while the volume as a whole highlights the patterns of textual practice shared across social and religious boundaries Throughout the dynamic interplay between text tradition and violence in early Jewish and Christian culture is located within the broad landscape of Roman imperial society

Textual Practice Jean Howard, Alan Sinfield, Lindsay Smith, 2005-06-27 In this volume Textual Practice brings together some of its most pressing concerns by exploring the interaction of texts with language politics gender and history Textual Practice has a theoretical approach that crosses over into a range of other apparently disparate disciplines philosophy history law medicine science architechtrure gender and media studies Key Features Features the most exciting new voices and the most influential new scholars in the field Multidisciplinary Includes two articles on Ireland _ _ _ Shakespeare and the Problem of Adaptation Margaret Jane Kidnie, 2009 Kidnie s study presents original sophisticated and profoundly intelligent answers to important questions Lukas Erne University of Geneva This is a fine and productive book one that will surely draw significant attention and commentary well beyond the precincts of Shakespeare studies W B Worthen Columbia University Shakespeare s plays continue to be circulated on a massive scale in a variety of guises as editions performances and adaptations and it is by means of such mediation that we come to know his drama Shakespeare and the Problem of Adaptation addresses fundamental questions about this process of mediation making use of the fraught category of adaptation to explore how we currently understand the Shakespearean work To adapt implies there exists something to alter but what constitutes the category of the play and how does it relate to adaptation How do play and adaptation relate to drama's twin media text and performance What impact might answers to these questions have on current editorial performance and adaptation studies Margaret Jane Kidnie argues that play and adaptation are provisional categories mutually dependent processes that evolve over time in accordance with the needs of users This theoretical argument about the identity of works and the nature of text and performance is pursued in relation to diverse examples including theatrical productions by the Royal Shakespeare Company the BBC's Shakespeare Re Told the Reduced Shakespeare Company and recent print editions of the complete works These new readings build up a persuasive picture of the cultural and intellectual processes that determine how the authentically Shakespearean is distinguished from the fraudulent and adaptive Adaptation thus emerges as the conceptually necessary but culturally problematic category that results from partial or occasional failures to recognize a shifting work in its textual theatrical instance

In Arden: Editing Shakespeare - Essays In Honour of Richard Proudfoot Gordon McMullan, Ann Thompson, 2015-03-20 A collection of new and specially commissioned essays by an eminent team of Shakespeare scholars focusing on the particular issues relating to the editing of Shakespeare and other Renaissance texts The editing of dramatic and other literary texts has always been an important aspect of literary studies In recent years editing and the theoretical frameworks that underlie editing practices have become a lively and controversial focus of debate sparked both by philosophical discussions on the death of the author and by the technological challenges presented by the possibilities of electronic texts Most national and international conferences on literature and drama include sessions on textual studies and editing and a number of monographs address particular issues relating to the editing of Shakespeare and other Renaissance texts but this is the first overall survey of the current state of the field The essays have been commissioned to honour Professor Richard Proudfoot Senior General Editor of the Arden Shakespeare and an internationally recognised authority in the field of Shakespeare textual scholarship who retired from King's College London in 1999 after 35 years This is a well planned focused and coordinated volume makes a significant contribution to Shakespeare studies The contributors are a formidable and global group of scholars representing both traditional and contemporary viewpoints They include a number of Arden editors past and present as well as scholars who have edited texts for the main competitors

Voice, Text, Hypertext Raimonda Modiano, Leroy F. Searle, Peter L. Shillingsburg, 2016-06-01 Voice Text Hypertext illustrates brilliantly why interest in textual studies has grown so dramatically in recent years For the distinguished authors of these essays a text is more than a document or material object It is a cultural event a matrix of decisions an intricate cultural practice that may focus on religious traditions modern underground literary movements poetic invention or the irreducible complexity of cultural politics Drawing from classical Roman and Indian to modern European traditions the volume makes clear that to study a text is to study a culture It also demonstrates the essential importance of heightened textual awareness for contemporary cultural studies and critical theory and indeed for any discipline that studies human culture

Shakespeare Survey Stanley Wells,Jonathan Bate,Michael Dobson,2003-10-16
Shakespeare Survey is a yearbook of Shakespeare studies and production Since 1948 Survey has published the best international scholarship in English and many of its essays have become classics of Shakespeare criticism Each volume is devoted to a theme or play or group of plays each also contains a section of reviews of the previous year s textual and critical studies and of major British performances The books are illustrated with a variety of Shakespearean images and production photographs The current editor of Survey is Peter Holland The first eighteen volumes were edited by Allardyce Nicoll numbers 19 33 by Kenneth Muir and numbers 34 52 by Stanley Wells The virtues of accessible scholarship and a keen interest in performance from Shakespeare s time to our own have characterised the journal from the start Now backnumbers are gradually being reissued in paperback

Difference, Silence, and Textual Practice Peter Freebody,Sandy Muspratt,Bronwyn Dwyer,2001 This volume discusses the challenge that recent understandings of difference pose to language and literacy educators It examines the crucial role of language and literacy education in the construction of contemporary cultural and economic conditions

Reading the Middle Generation Anew Eric Haralson,2006-05 Ten original essays by advanced scholars and well published poets address the middle generation of American poets including the familiar Robert Lowell Elizabeth Bishop Randall Jarrell and John Berryman and various important contemporaries Delmore Schwartz Theodore Roethke Robert Hayden and Lorine Niedecker This was a famously troubled cohort of writers for reasons both personal and cultural and collectively their poems give us powerful moving insights into American social life in the transforming decades of the 1940s through the 1960s In addition to having worked during the broad middle of the last century these poets constitute the center of twentieth century American poetry in the larger sense refuting invidious connotations of middle as coming after the great moderns and being superseded by a proliferating postmodern experimentation This middle generation mediates the so called American century and its prodigious body of poetry even as it complicates historical and aesthetic categorizations Taking diverse formal and thematic angles on these poets deconstructionist biographical historical and more formalist accounts this book re examines their between ness and ambivalence their various positionings and repositionings in aesthetic political and personal matters The essays study the interplay between these writers and such shifting formations as religious discourse consumerism militarism and war the ideology of America as nature s nation and U S race relations and ethnic conflicts Reading the Middle Generation Anew also shows the legacy of the middle generation the ways in which their lives and writings continue to be a shaping force in American poetry This fresh and invigorating collection will be of great interest to literary scholars and poets

Practising Femininity Misao Dean,1998 Femininity in Colonial Societies is a Particularly Contested Element of the sex gender system while it draws on a conservative belief in universal and continuous values it is undermined by the liberal rhetoric of freedom characteristic of the New World Practising Femininity analyses the ways that Canadian texts by Catharine Parr Traill Susanna Moodie Nellie McClung Sinclair Ross and others work to produce and naturalize femininity in a colonial setting Drawing on Judith Butler s definition of gender as performance Misao Dean shows how practices that seem to transgress the feminine ideal emigration physical labour autobiographical writing work for wages sexual desire and suffrage activism were justified by Canadian writers as legitimate expressions of an unvarying feminine inner self Early Canadian writers cited a feminine gender ideal that emphasized love of home and adherence to duty New Women and Suffrage writers defined sexuality as part of a biological desire to reproduce in the work of Sinclair Ross the feminine ideal was moulded by current Freudian models of femininity This study is grounded in the most important current theories in gender and will interest Canadian literary scholars feminist historians and theoreticians and students of women s studies

Rhetoric and Political Culture in Nineteenth-century America Thomas W. Benson,1997 The critical study of public address has changed in the twentieth century and will continue to evolve in the twenty first As the studies in this volume demonstrate methodological pluralism is the standard of contemporary work and active rhetorical critics today are more consciously aware of the theoretical implications and extensions of their work than were their critical forebears What links the last with the present however and what will continue to engage us in the future is the search for meaning in human rhetorical action The authors in this collection explore the claim that public discourse spoken and written continues to illustrate nineteenth century American political culture The book is a series of close textual readings of significant texts in American rhetoric inquiring into the text the context the influence of pervasive rhetorical forms and genres the intentions of the speaker the response of the audience and the role of the critic These spirited essays are concrete committed dialogic explorations of significant moments in American public discourse That they do not reduce to a single voice or theory will be taken it is hoped as part of their virtue A spirit of eager contestation and respect for intellectual diversity was a marked feature of the collection Each of the chapters treats in some detail issues relating to the theme of time in rhetorical practice and studies Time appears as an issue here especially in considerations of the persistence of themes and forms in recurrent attempts to transcend and re shape public memory in the choice of speakers and critics to celebrate appropriate revise reframe or reject earlier texts and of course in the use of public oratory to influence the future Marvels & Tales ,1998 Journal of fairy tale studies The Cumulative Book Index ,1913 Consumers and Luxury Maxine Berg,Helen Clifford,1999 This volume charts the rise of consumer culture in Europe during the 17th and 18th centuries Essays are included on France and Holland but the focus is primarily on Britain Themes discussed include art markets collecting and display and are set alongside those of value and luxury Book Review Digest ,1911 Excerpts from and citations to reviews of more than 8 000 books each year drawn from coverage of 109 publications Book Review Digest provides citations to and excerpts of reviews of current juvenile and adult fiction and nonfiction in the English language Reviews of the following types of books are excluded government publications textbooks and technical books in the sciences and law Reviews of books on science for the general reader however are included The reviews originate in a group of selected periodicals in the humanities social sciences and general science published in the United States Canada and Great Britain Publisher The Eighteenth Century ,2007
